Many inquiries are being made as to ho many ballots are to be roted at the election on Nov. 3d. The Act of Assembly provid-ing for a rote on the question of a Consti-tutional Convention not being generally known throughout the county, we deem it proper to state for the information of the five separate but wealth and every corporation in it, is to-day subject to the limitations and restric-tions of its general laws, and entitled to proper to state for the information of the yoters of Butlar county that there will be five separate ballots to be voted at the coming election, as follows: 1st. A ballot containing the names of andidates for Anditor General and State Treasurer, headed "State." 2d. A ballot "for" or "Against" a Con-intional Convention. its protection. Were it otherwise, were these corporations standing alone and apart—a law unto themselves—as this writer states, what right would any of them to have to call for State aid if attack ed by a mob as the P. R. R. Co. was in Pittsburg in 1877, and what right would they have to collect damages for the doings of such mobs, as the same company did from Allegheny county. The law officers itutional Convention. 3d. Well! it is just such people we are after, and if this should catch their eye, we hope human curiosity will lead them to read it for it is one of the commonest traits of the race. It was curiosity that led Eve to taste the forbidden fruit; and her offspring have their curiosity excited every day as a hereditary temptation, from the small boy everlastingly peeping into boxes to the hired-girl with her eye to the key hole. Eveybody wonders what is in it. Properly directed, this curiosity often leads to satisfactory results, and D. A. Heck invites all curious people to make a voyage of discovery to his store and see the largest store, the largest stock of clothing—in Overcoats, and Suits for men, boys and children, Hats, Caps, Gloves, Mitts, Shirts, Uuder-weer, Cordigau-Jackets, Leather Coats and Pants, Overall-Jackets, Trunks, Valises, Umbrellas, Rubber-Coats, Collars, Cuffs, Ties, Hokts, Mufflers, Brushes, Purses, Bill and Pocket-Books, Ladies and Gents' Watches, Chain-Charms, Rings, Pins, Sieeve and Collar Buttons, Silver Card-Cases, and a And strange to say, he informed me that he had never heard of me.
