Mr. Frank M. Keene, the operator for the National Transit Co. here has been selected for manager of the New Opera House. His brother J. P. Keene is the manager of the Frankliu Pa. Opera House. Bill Nye, an interesting and original authority on such matters, says in relation to ladies' fashions: "Ladies will have different clothes this year throughout. Soit and fassy effects will be sought after considerably. A nice warm bonnet, direct from Paris, is made of a neat little bluelay's breast with satin strings which tie under the chin. A very fascinating bonnet for street wear during the more bitter cold weather will consist of a many crossite

Mrs. S. V. Sloan, of Eau Claire, Butler county, brought as some fine apples last week. They grew on a graft that was sent from the battlefield of Bull Run by her brother, W. J. Welsh, of Franklin.—

Rev. Wm. Branfield of Millerstown will lecture for the Epworth League on "Man's possibilities" in the M. E., church next Tuesday evening.

Mr. L. H. Patterson of the Government printing office at Washington came home to vote in the Fifth ward. Contractor Schenck is rushing work on the new Opera House.

Rev. William A. Passavant Jr., of Pittsburgh, preached in the English Lutheran Church of this place last Sunday morning. In the evening he also conducted the services held by the children of the Sunday School of the Church in commemoration of the great Reformation, commenced by Luther, heing the 37th anniversary of the same—1517-1891. These exercises were very successful, interesting and instructive. Next Sunday Rev. Dr. William A. Passavant Sr. will fill the pulpit of the Church, both morning and evening.

A Corry girl disappeared a few days ago.

A Corry girl disappeared a few days ago. Among her effects was found a dairy, which relates that she has long been intimate with a young married man. He has also disappeared. Both were conspicuous workers in the church. Moral: Don't keep a dairy.—Franklin News.

A couple of Pittsburg boys have just returned from a bicycle trip through the mountains of Central Virginia. For two days they traveled through a country where the majority of the people had never seen a bicycle, and were about the only evidence of civilization to be found was a box of Marvin's Eagle butter crackers, which the proprietor of one of the back-woods hotels proudly dis-"We have to drive 24 miles to the Railroad station to get 'em," he said, but I'd go after 'em if the distance was fifty miles."
