Last month of the year.

Conundrum suppers are the latest. In Kansas snuff-drawers are being used for fuel.

Manufacturers intend to introduce the typewriter into the public schools. Green, brown, black, yellow, pink and scarlet are the prominent colors in millinery.

It was a wise turkey that contented itself with lodgings in the top flat of a seven-story coop.

The sale of the Wm. Crookbank farm was adjourned till Jan. 5th. Sec. adv. and bids posted.

The winter term of the West Sunbury Academy began Monday, with eighty scholars enrolled.

We have noticed that the taller a woman is the less fat you will find on the high shelves in the house.

Some citizens of Zellenepole have organized a friendly mail machine company with a capital stock of $4,000.

Up to the 31st inst., the daylight will continue to shrink about three minutes each day, and then begin to lengthen.

Physician, heal thyself! It is perhaps the most supererogatory injunction that ever issued from mortal lips.

Lawyer McCurdy, of New York has no reason to complain of the Tilden bill. His little bill for winning the case for the heirs amounted to $400,000.

The water of the Allegheny river has become so impregnated with oil, that the people of Pittsburgh now fill their lamps at the water spigots.

An exchange tells of a printing office that is opened with prayer. This is contrary to the usual custom. The Devil generally opens and the Sheriff closes the print shop.

Whenever we hear a girl practicing on the piano right after breakfast we wonder if she does it out of love for music or a dread of dish-washing.

Keeping everlastingly at it brings success. This hint is thrown out for the benefit of our advertisers who are looking for a successful sale of Christmas goods.

Some boys of Millersport and vicinity were poisoned last week, by drinking cider which had been left standing in a galvanized-iron bucket, and had dissolved and absorbed the galvanizing.

Telegraphic messages, some 800 a day are now sent from New York to London and the reply received in four minutes. Most of them are sent between 10 o'clock a. m. and 2 p. m.

The Taylor building at the turn of Centre Ave. was discovered to be burning early Tuesday morning, but the Springlede Home Company soon quenched the flames.

As a large proportion of men and women are failures, it is no wonder that many marriages are failures, on the well known principle that two failures will not make one success.

Present for every body for your father, mother, brother, sister, cousin, somebody else's cousin, uncle, aunt, old friend, young folks, little folks, Louis Traxler's, next door to Butler Savings Bank.

The following poem story is taken from one of our exchanges; a farmer raised thousands of bushels of pop-corn and stored it in his barn. The corn caught on fire.

The corn began to pop and a ten acre field. An old man in a neighboring pasture who had a defective eyesight saw the corn, thought it was snow and laid down and froze to death.

The head of a monster bull moose was exhibited at Carleton Me. last week. There were nine prongs, one horn and eight on the other, the spread of the antlers measured five feet. The moose, which must have weighed 1500 pounds at least, was shot by a Frenchman on the American side of the St. John River.

Silverware given away free. All my patrons will receive a nice present until Xmas. I am giving away three plated Butter-dishes, Pickle-casters, Sugar-bowls, Butter-knives, Teaspoons, Tablespoons, Knives and Forks, free of charge. Louis Traxler, next door to Butler Savings Bank.

A case which shows the necessity of publishing notices of dissolution of partnership, when such dissolution has been made, was brought into court a few days ago. Prior to August 29, 1883, Benjamin Milliken and Harry Bettenger were partners in the butcher business in Venango county. After that time Milliken purchased about $475 worth of cattle, falling to pay for which the firm brought suit against the firm of Bettenger & Milliken and collected the whole sum from Bettenger.

There is a man in our town and he is wondrous wise; whenever he writes the printer man he dotheth all his. And when he dotheth all of them, with great sangfroid and ease, he punctuates each paragraph, and correcteth all his. Upon one side alone he writes, and never rolls his leaves; and from the man of ink a smile, and a quiet "insert" receives. And when a question he doth ask (taught wisely had he been,) he doth the good two penny stamp, for postage back, put in.—Ez.

Up in Venango Co., a little case was disposed of by a jury, which put two thirds of the costs on the prosecutor, and one third on the defendant. The case started a year or so ago when one man sued another for a seven dollar balance on a book account, and this was followed by a protracted perjury. The Franklin News says this case illustrated in a grotesque degree the folly of vindictive litigation, and is a striking exhibit of the cumulative nature of law costs. Starting on a claim of $7, it swelled into a matter of $600, which the parties must pay. And yet, with all this outlay, the difference between them is not settled. They are not happy, nor are they likely to be. On a quarrel over a matter of $7, they expended the county seat sixty witnesses and kept them here for nine days. And then, instead of getting satisfaction, the principals got socked with a bill of $600 costs, and return home to skrimish for the wherewithal, instead of celebrating the victory over the opponent.

Accidents. A son of Christ Behr, of Zellenepole, aged five years was burned to death by the explosion of an oil can last Wednesday morning.

A son of Thos. O'Donnell, of Clearfield, Pa., aged three years was burned to death, last Wednesday afternoon, by his clothing taking fire from the grate.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

At Washington Pa. Catlin was found guilty of murder in the second degree last week, and sent to the penitentiary for three years.

An Erie County farmer objected to the placing of a telephone pole on the highway that runs through his property. The Supreme Court decided that the wires and poles must be removed.

It will cost Berks county more to put the new Election law into operation than it does to maintain the courts a year, said Judge York from the bench one day last week. He said that in many of the townships in the county they would have to erect special buildings in which to hold the elections, as the old places will be so small.

Twelve counties in Pennsylvania Clarion, Armstrong, Crawford, Fulton, Juniata, Mercer, Monroe, Perry, Pike, Snyder, Susquehanna and Wayne, have each decreased in population in the last decade. Clarion shows the greatest decrease being 87.4 per cent. The greatest increase is in Forest showing 93.47 per cent. The greatest increase in numbers was in Philadelphia 190,794. Allegheny being second with 106,000. The greatest increase in population in a town of over 4,000 inhabitants is that of Homestead which shows an increase of 1,236 per cent. Steeltown is second with 278 per cent. Johnstown gained 160 which has considering the catastrophe it suffered, is a remarkable growth.

Some of the prisoners of Riverside penitentiary have been detected in an attempt to escape. They were digging a tunnel from a point underneath the floor of a shed in the yard to the wall, when the suspicious of the Superintendent were aroused, he made an investigation.

Judge Doty, of Greensburg, has decided that persons making application for naturalization papers, must swear that they paid all expenses incident thereto out of their own pockets, and that no part of them was paid by any other person or committee.

If the voters were also required to swear the same about their taxes, that would be a great saving to political parties and also disincubate a good many bad debt citizens.

Mayor Wyman of Allegheny has been placed under arrest on four charges of embezzlement and extortion.

D. Van Yinging, of Clarion Co., man who formerly worked at Clarion, who parker was murdered in Mexico lately. Some years ago he secured the position of superintendent of a silver mine near Monterrey, Mexico, and the murder is supposed to have been done by some Mexican miners that he had discharged.

On Wednesday last week in the Criminal Court of Allegheny Co., Frank Gerarde was again found guilty of murder in the first degree, for dashing his little niece's brains out. That was the closing day of a long term of Criminal Court in that county, during which 635 cases were disposed of, and two persons convicted of murder in the first degree, six in the second, and five of manslaughter.

A gang of soap swappers have been kicking Kittingan. They sell a box of villainous soap for $2, offering as a premium a rubber-rod made with the victim's manure worked thereon. The $2 is invariably collected and the box of alleged soap delivered, but the door mat never arrives. The same fellow was canvassing this borough last week, but we have not learned that he disposed of a single box of soap.

Miss Sadie T. Ray, of Grove City, has entered suit in the Trumbull county court, against Geo. A. Streeter, of Gettysburg, Pa., for breach of promise. Her petition sets forth that she promised on the 24th of February, 1889, to marry defendant in the month of February, 1891, and that at said time and ever since was ready and willing to marry the defendant, but that the defendant, contrary to his said promise, afterwards, wit-out about October, 1891, married another woman, one Louisa Polton. By reason of the disregarding and breaking of said contract by defendant, plaintiff claims to have suffered damages to the extent of $10,000.

It is understood that the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will bid $400,000 for the Allegheny Valley Railroad at its sale on the 15th of December.

At Pittsburgh, Friday, a man beat his wife for having too many children, and is under arrest.

At Leechburg early last Friday morning the local Gas Company turned off the gas, on account of a dispute with the town council, regarding street lamps, and the people shivered, and ate cold victuals, until Judge Rayburn required the Company to turn on the gas.

The Cleveland Leader of Wednesday notes the arrest there the night before of James W. Best, of West Middlesex, Pa., for having stolen a team of ponies, boggy and harness from a Kittingan, Monday. Best had hired the outfit the Wednesday before for a few hours drive, but instead had driven to Youngstown, and then to Cleveland, where, with the aid of a friend, C. E. McFarlin he was trying to sell them. When arrested they were in a saloon trying to sell the horses. The liverman had tracked them and when they were arrested identified his property.

Joe Pringle Jr., of Pittsburgh, whose parents are Methodists, and Maggie Dwyer, a neighbor, whose parents are Catholics, were married Monday, and were married, and now neither of the young couple's parents will have anything to do with them.

Mrs. McVay, of Bradwood, an aged lady long on nourishment, excepting butter milk for 151 days, and died last Monday.

Frederick Abbott, a wealthy farmer of Baldwin twp., Allegheny Co., swallowed a teaspoonful of arsenic, Friday and died. He had been drinking heavily.

The citizens of Grove City are protesting against the opening of a billiard room in that place. Petitions were circulated in the town, and between 600 and 700 signatures against the opening were secured.

A fatal epidemic has broken out among the horses in a portion of Trumbull county Ohio. A State veterinary surgeon was called, who pronounced the disease spinal meningitis. Six horses died on farm of starvation, owing to their inability to swallow. The surgeon gave as a cause of the contagion that atmospheric conditions are responsible.

The Warren Ohio, Tribune says: Last April the four-year-old girl of Mr. Will Byrnes swallowed a needle. She came to her mother at the time and said she had swallowed a pin. A physician was summoned but the pin could not be gotten out. The little girl suffered somewhat from stomach troubles at times during the summer but has not been seriously inconvenienced. A few days ago she complained of a crickling in her foot. An examination was made and a small needle about an inch and a quarter in length was extracted. The needle which she had swallowed six months ago had worked its way to her foot.

The Farmers' Alliance of Lawrence county has almost put a stop to hunting in some sections. Four arrests have been made and the defendants fined for hunting on farms where "keep off" notices had been posted. Early in the fall the different alliances in the county gave legal notice through the newspapers forbidding hunters to trespass on farms. There is now war between the farmers and sportsmen, and some of the farmers even charge the sportsmen with scattering Canadian bullets on their farms. One man has been prosecuted by the hunters.

LEGAL NEWS.

THE KINGS GALORE. On Friday last week was received here that Chas. King who escaped jail on the 22d inst. was in his brother-in-law's house in the woods in the Galley tract about six miles from Kennelton station in Venango Co. and Policeman Gardner and Det. Allen started after him. They went to Clintonville that evening and secured the services of two young men who were used to hunting in that woods and knew the house, and next morning they started out before day light, the two hunters on horseback and armed with shot guns, leading the way. They arrived at the house at about day break, and three of the men surrounded it, while Gardner bustled in and asked for his man.

The woman who was getting breakfast denied having seen her brother for three months, but Gardner posted up stairs and made a search, and found his man crouched in a closet, and captured him. King had scented danger and had tried to escape by a window but changed his mind on being warned that a shot gun was pointed at him.

The policemen took him to Clintonville for breakfast, and then brought him to the county jail in jail after a ride of forty miles through the mud.

Will King, a brother of Chas. was jailed for larceny, last Friday.

Dams, Dirt and Dead Animals.

At the meeting of Council, Tuesday night, Mr. McGee, who owns two properties in the West End, with his tenants Messrs. Limberg and Kennedy, and his attorney, Mr. Groer, appeared and complained of the dam that had been built near the mouth of Sullivan run for the protection of the sewer which crosses it. The dam backs up the water and causes it to doat the collars of the buildings now occupied by Messrs. Limberg and Kennedy, and has also spoiled their wells. The matter was discussed, and then referred to the Engineer and Sewer Committee, with power to take immediate action.

The members of the Council, who visited the proposed location of the dumping ground, reported that the citizens of that vicinity were protesting against it, and that the Committee had come to the conclusion that the dumping ground should be located outside the city limits. Mr. Forner thought that the town should buy a lot near a gas line, and build a furnace, and have all refuse burned in it, at the expense of those who made use of it.

The Committee appointed by the Street Sweeper, reported that they could get one of them from $200 to $400, and the Committee was directed to buy one.

Water is needed for the Springdale sewers immediately, and the old water Co. will be so notified, and if it does not furnish the water within five days the new company will.

The Slaughter House Ordinance was passed. It will go into effect on June 1st, 1892, and before that time all slaughter houses must be removed outside the borough limits.

Jail bill bridge will be repaired; Mr. Mackey's agreement regarding his building on Centre Ave. is to be filed, some property owners were notified to build sidewalks, Geo. Shaffer was appointed an auditor on the 23d inst. so far as the sewer board works were ordered to be advertised; Messrs Long & Doyle were voted $1000 on contract, and the Finance and Paving Committees will examine the assignments.

Then came the bills, a whole stack of them and aggregating about $2000 worth of which were approved, and warrants ordered drawn.

A Novel for Girls

It is said that Mr. Howells, who is perhaps the foremost of living American novelists, has long had in his mind a story of an American girl's life, which he believes will be the best piece of his work. The story of the great novelist has now been induced to write out the story, and at present he is at work upon it. It is a novel unlike any which Mr. Howells has ever written. It deals entirely with the struggles of a Western girl who goes to New York, and the story will have about it all the flavor which attaches to a tale of city life with a young girl as the central heroine. Heretofore Mr. Howells himself believes that it will be as attractive a story as any with which his name has been connected.

Babyland. The December number is already here, and it is quite as exciting to the little people as preceding numbers have been. SICK PEOPLE want to get well and are anxious to secure the most reliable remedies. This is important, for the physician may be ever so competent, but if drugs administered have become inert by long standing or not being properly cared for the result expected cannot be obtained. We have ever tried to supply our patrons with the very best and purest drugs the market affords. Our stock is new and fresh and every article is carefully inspected on reaching our store. Our rapidly growing trade is the best evidence that our efforts are being appreciated. We endeavor to keep everything that is likely to be called for, but if we do not have what your prescription calls for we will frankly tell you so and not replace it with something else, and will try to secure it for you in the shortest possible time. Physicians prescriptions and sick room requisites a specialty. Our prices are as low as consistent with pure drugs. We do not care to handle inferior goods at any price. Respectfully, C. N.
