TURN ON THE LIGHT

Gosser's Cream Glycerine It is the ideal Cosmetic. It stimulates the nerves, quickens circulation and carries away dead particles of the skin, leaving it fine and clear. It has no equal for Chapped Hands, Lips, Face, or roughness of the skin, and is not excelled as a dressing for the face after shaving. It is a bland, creamy emulsion, with just enough vegetable oil to soften the skin. No lady or gentleman should be without it. Be sure to get the genuine. Take no substitute.

DRESSING POULTRY.

How to Secure the Best Prices in the How to Secure the Best Prices in the City Markets.

There are two ways of dressing poultry for market—dry picked and scalded, says Poultry Yard. Fowls dressed in the former way in all cases bring the highest prices. It should be the aim of every farmer, in disposing of his poultry, to ship it in as good condition as possible, in order to catch the eye of the butcher, or grocer, and secure a as possible, in order to caten the eye of the butcher, or grocer, and secure a ready sale. Greater skill is required to dry pick poultry than most people imagine, in order that the "bird" may look plump and handsome. To do this work properly, or with any degree of satisfaction, the fowl should be plucked when warm that is immediately after when warm—that is, immediately after it is killed—as, if allowed to get cold before stripping the feathers, you are very apt to tear the flesh.

Commence first by plucking the wing and tail feathers, then the back, from head to tail. Pluck the feathers from the "craw" crossways; stomach and breast feathers should be plucked downward-that is, from the legs to In dressing poultry by this method, you get a double advantage of those dressed by the hot water process, as you can save all the feathers, being careful to keep separate the tail and wing feathers; and where many are dressed, the sale of feathers amounts to quite an item of profit.

Uressing poultry by the scalding process is by no means a good and profitable one, as it depreciates the value of the birds, they look anything but dainty, and, do what you will, they will never look enticing to the buyer; moreover you lose the value of the

SIMPLE HOSE MENDER.

A Device Which Is Not Fatented and Therefore Everybody's Property. The accompanying engraving gives views of opposite sides of a section of hose sent us by John McGowan, Orange, N. J., to illustrate a simple method of mending hose practiced by him for years. After triuming evenly the ragged edges of the break in the hose, a short section of half-inch iron vanized iron wire is wrapped around the hose as shown at the right in the upper figure, and twisted tightly so an to sink into the rubber. The wire is then twisted for a few inches as shown in the lower figure, again wrapped around the hose and fastened as shown at the left of the upper figure. This mender is not patented, and the materials for making it are inexpensive and apply the property of the property easily obtainable. - American Florist
