In answer to the direct question-"Ar

from Pennsylvania." Congressman Dal-sell at Washington, last week said. "I had hoped not to be pressed for an answer to that question at this time, but since continued silence on my part seems only to be fraitful of misrepresentation, I will define my position. There is undoubt-edly a widespread sentiment in Pennsylva-nia against the re-election of Mr. Quay. In this sentment, wholly apart from any con-siderations personal to myself. I sincerely concur. If that sentiment shall take form in my favor, and I be elected to the highly honorable office of United States Senator, honorable office of United States Senator, I shall appreciate the honor, and, to the best of my ability, perform its duties with fidelity, and with loyalty on all occasions to the declared principles of the Republi-

Mr. Dalze!l's Candidacy.

In fact our whole nomination system. both State and National, stands upon the delegate idea, and the President, Vice President, and the United States Senators are elected by the delegate system. A re-public is a government by representatives selected by the people. A democracy is a government by the people direct. Ours is a republic.--Mercer Dispatch. "People are not easily fooled by rant. A temperate article containing reasons Representative Dalzell's frank announcement sets him fairly before the State as a candidate for United States Senator agains Senator Quay. Other candidates from other tarts of the State will doubtless appear before a great while, but the interest will crystallise chiefly about these two. There have been significant indications from the eastern part of the State that the aggres-
