The Next State Senate.

There seems to be a pepular impression that because there is a large Republican majority in the State Senate the Republicans must have a majority of the hold-over Senators. This is a mistake. Of the twenty-five Senators representing the even num-bered districts whose terms will extend through the next session of the Legislature but nine are Republicans; sixteen are Demo-crats. The Republicans are Elwood Becker, C. Wes ey Thomas, Boise Penrose, and Jacob Crouse, of Philadelphia; Winfield S.
