Prof. Cooper, of Edinboro, sends us the following; On the evening of the 5th fifteen trustees voted to dismiss me from the Principalship of the school. They made four charges against me, all of which were were born in malice. Every charge is false. I refused to be dismissed. I have continued at my post. I have had three trustees arrested for conspiracy and two for larceny. Two will be arrested for embezzlement. Others will be arrested for libel. Our citizens are determined the whole fifteen shall be removed from office. I shall sue every one of these fifteen for damages. Students and teachers were nover more united. We expect 600 students next term. I thank my friends for their expressions of confidence and esteem.

The dwelling house of Martin N. Greer, at Saxonburg Station, was discovered to be on fire on Sunday evening about six o'clock. The fire had caught in the kitchen owing to an over pressure of gas. Had it not been for the timely assistance of the neighbors the house would have been totally destroyed. Owing to the wind being in their favor and an abundance of water at hand they succeeded in conquering the flames. The damage is considerable and no insurance. This is two years since his house and all its contents

-The following was sent from Butler to a Pittsburg paper last Tuesday: The Republican and Democratic members of the M. E. Church of this place, are indig nant at the action of the Prohibition fac tion of the church in distributing campaign literature in the church on Sunday. Afte the morning service a boy was stationed at the foot of each stair and a political cir cular was handed to each member as he left the church. When it is considered that some members of the official board of the church and the Rev. Mr. Bell, the pastor, are members of the Lord's Day Union, their action in advancing pelitica ends on the Lord's day and in the church can only be accounted for on the ground that they are Prohibitionists, and that "the end justifies the means," even if it does onflict with their ideas of Sabbath obser vance, on other matters. The Prohibition sts were preparing to make a fight at the polls on Tuesday, and in their zeal evident ly forgot that politics and religion do not go hand in hand.
