THE CITIZEN MISCELLANEOUS
 Not to be Caught.
 'Twas at the Sabbath-school picnic, Two maidens of uncertain age were struggling in the water.
 "Merciful heavens!" cried the pastor, "Will no one save them? Is there no swimmer among us?"
 "Is there a drop of peace in the crowd?" asked Tattered Stuyvesant, the tramp, emerging from the bushes.
 "I hold that office," answered a gentleman, "but will!"
 "Well, then, ladies," shouted Tattered Stuyvesant to the struggling pair, "hold up your heads, and let the justice swear ye that I don't have to marry either of ye, and I'll plunge in. I'm heroic, but not foolhardy. This is leap year, and I'm not!"
 "IN THE NICK OF TIME."
 Jack—Hello, Tom!
 Tom—Hello!
 Jack—Say, since you have some money now, could you let me have that small amount you owe me?—N. Y. Herald.

THE Relationship Changed.
 Little Rose had had her one eye, her face was cracked, one arm was gone and most of her internal sawdust had departed. She placed it in a sitting posture on the floor in the corner of her play-house, examined its form and shrunken figure with a critical eye, and said regretfully yet decidedly:
 "You can stay in the family if you want to, Dolly, but after this I'm only going to be a stepmother to you."—Chicago Tribune.

Art's Sister—Oh, George, your work is going to be appreciated at last. At the gallery to-day I heard Mrs. Highup say you had the prettiest picture on exhibition.
Struggling Artist (despondingly)— Mrs. Highup, unfortunately, is no judge. She admires that red-faced, pug-nosed baby of hers.—N. Y. Weekly.

Some Difficulties.
 Springtop—I met Weatherly to-day, and he said you were a fool to pay so much for a spring wrap. His wife got for ten dollars less than yours.
 Mrs. Springtop—Yes, my dear, but she only spent a day in looking for hers. It took me a week to find mine.—Clook Review.

No Judge of Beauty.
 Artist's Sister—Oh, George, your work is going to be appreciated at last. At the gallery to-day I heard Mrs. Highup say you had the prettiest picture on exhibition.

When you see a man who is smaller than last year's and nearly square.
The marvelous success of Homer's Sarsaparilla is based upon the corner stone of absolute truth.
An Indiana woman claims to have worn Sarsaparilla for 70 years. A rather protracted stay.

Spring Fever.
 The gradual opening of the leading trees and the coming of the birds are signs of the advent of spring. The farmer is already working his fields, and the city dweller is already enjoying the fresh air and sunshine. It is a liquid, and you can use it on anything you like to your mind. All retailers sell it.

Save Yourself Money.
 When you go to Pittsburgh, Pa., stop at the Anchor Hotel, corner Liberty and Fourth streets. It is a liquid, and you can use it on anything you like to your mind. All retailers sell it.

Women Who Die Early.
 Many of our most beautiful and accomplished ladies die before they have reached the prime of life. Of those who live to middle age, only one in two hundred is sound; the other hundred and ninety-nine are suffering. Why is it? Self-neglect. The neglect of health care, and the neglect of the home made happy, and your life lengthened. It is a liquid, and you can use it on anything you like to your mind. All retailers sell it.

Elon is the watchword of fashion just now. There are Elon pockets, Elon collars and Elon neckties.
A fighting ring without any posts has been designed. It is rather remarkable that a "ring" for fighting purposes is all ways square.

SOMETHING TO BUILD ON.
 Claude—Is your point to build a house?
 Rastus—Why you say build a house—what you sayin' dat for?
 Claude—Because I see you 's got your frame-work up.—Judge.

Enquestionable Evidence.
 Miss Deacon Hill—Whom do you consider the best comedian, Polowski or Gumbrowski?
 Miss Wabash—Polowski is certainly the better of the two.
 Miss Deacon Hill—Upon what theory do you base your opinion?
 Miss Wabash—Oh his hair is ever so much longer.—Brooklyn Life.

Elevating the Stage.
 Mrs. Caroline Bieder—Do you think, Mr. Track, that those fashionable women do anything toward elevating the stage?
 Mr. Oscar Track (who drives)—I don't know about the stage, but I've seen them raise a street-car conductor off his feet because he didn't stop on the crossing.—Detroit Free Press.

Looking at the Bright Side.
 Mrs. Tompkins—I hear Mr. Van Dudy is very ill.
 De Smith—Is he? Well, I dare say he'll die.
 Mrs. Tompkins—What makes you think so?
 De Smith—Oh, I don't know. Because I'm an optimist by nature, I suppose.—Life.

A Considerate Doctor.
 A—Dr. Schmidt is one of the nicest doctors in the city. Very frequently he attends patients and never asks them to pay.
 B—You don't say so!
 C—Yes. He sees the estate if the executor doesn't settle it promptly.—Texas Sittings.

On a Usual Month.
 Wife—I opened a bill of yours from the club this morning for twenty-five dollars. I didn't know you spent so much money at the club.
 Husband—That was the month that baby was teething.—Puck.

Texts and Textures.
 Jennie—What was the text your minister preached to-day?
 D. H. Walker, Butler A. Bowers, prospect, Broad & Allison, W. Sunbury.

The common black beetle can carry 96 times its weight on one load. If men were only so constituted the Keeley institute would have to close for the lack of business.
Growin' Up with the Country Too Slow.
 Being tired of working for a salary, I decided to go West and grow up with the country. I lived and ate and made and made land poor, and was obliged to make a living for my wife and children some other way. I saw Mr. Marshall's advertisement in the paper, "Business by accident in an old newspaper." I did as he said, sent $5 to E. H. H. & Co., Columbus, Ohio, and went to work planting first in my own neighborhood, and found I did so well that I bought a large tract of land in the prairie which I did at my own expense. There is plenty of money out West here, if you only know how to get it, and I hope my experience will help anybody who is having a hard time. I made last week $12 and the week previous $12. Any body can get circulares by writing to DeLo & Co., Columbus, O. ROBERT LANSBY.

IT'S A HOODOO!
 "It don't scare us— Competition endwise. The monster is gentle to our customers and they can handle it with perfect safety. The great 'What is it?' that is what everybody wants to know; by our illustration you can see that it is not like anything ever exhibited by Barnum or Porphough. It rivals the great Orangoutang, uranout and stick your tongue out, the greatest wonder of the age. 'What is it?'—why it's Heck's mammoth stock of fine clothing. Hats, Caps, Shirts, Pants, Underwear, Collars, Cuffs, Neck-weave, Suspender, Umbrellas, Trunks, Satchels, Parasols, Bill and Pocket-books, Clothes, Hair and Tooth-brushes, Watches, Chains, Charms, Ladies' and Gents' Rings, Pins, Collar and Cuff Buttons and hundreds of articles too tedious to mention which we have for sale, and you may need. Call and see our mammoth stock of beautiful spring attractions and you will certainly say it's a Hoodoo. Well, we are not looking for those who do trade with us but for those who do not. We don't believe there are many who do not, but there ought not to be one person in Butler or adjoining counties left who does not know that the place to save money, to get big values, is at Heck's Store, 121 N. Main St. Why is it that you miss your chance and waste your money? Don't you know better? We hear you no ill will, why should we? This is not our funeral, we are just the same merry merchant as of old. We are rollicking, jolly fellows; we are taping, tip top sellers, and when it comes to bargains we can suit you to a T. If you think we are a hone, come buy your clothes and drop your money, and we'll treat you like a little sonny, for we have got the energy and the will; we made up our mind to be the

LEADER IN OUR LINE
 and the result is that we lead and the band plays Anny Rooney, and there is no mistake about it. The world stands aghast at the realization of the fact that the high quality and low prices of our goods is a reality and not a fictionary legend to those who have never dealt with us. We would be glad to see you and pleased to put in your hands a real money saver, a bargain with a great big B. If you are not on our list of customers, come and be convinced that we are right at the front doing big business, on the best basis, a square deal and a rolling dollar. We are going to get up a train load for the World's Fair at Chicago in 1893, and we want you to come in and go along. We will furnish you with a free the only conditions that you buy your goods of us. For further particulars call in and see us about it.

Round Trip Ticket,
 With kindest regards for your liberal patronage and your remembrance of us to your many friends, we shall in the future endeavor to merit your confidence.
