The P. N. M. I.

The talk of the town this week is the P. N. M. I. The Institute opened its first session on Monday, P. M., in the Lecture room of the Presbyterian Church. The evening session found the room filled with music loving people. Prof. Brown has secured three of last years favorites, Prof. Isensee, Towne and King. They must have felt gratified at the reception given them. The new members of the faculty this season are Mrs. Smith, Miss Newcombe and Prof. Webster. Mrs. Smith's voice is one of great power and sweetness, and the pupils are charmed with her and her methods of teaching. Miss Newcombe is certainly the finest violinist that has yet appeared in Butler. While Prof. Webster won his audience from the start, his talks before his class, on the piano are said to be very plain and practical. The opportunity for instruction in musical affairs has never before been presented so fayorably to the Butler people. Private the price usually charged by the same instructors. On Feider worms, the first fayorably to the Butler people. Private lessons are secured at almost one half the the price usually charged by the same instructors. HUSELTON,

A TALISMAN!

While there is nothing exactly magnetal about our shoes, there is a "slight of hand" that truns them out with the fatting qualities that makes them famous. There is too, a "charm" about them so impressive that customers yield to the "spell" that never leaves. Our hories' shoes might be called "enchanters." Our men's are full of talaganic virtues, smooth called "enchanters." Our men's are full of talamanic virtues, smooth sailing in these shoes, "no tacking" (nauties) francis please catch on) The season of circuses reminds us of "turned" and the only thing "acrobatie" about ours is that, like all our goods, they bend easily, being very flexible. Goodyear Welts, too modest to put sa case, could do to they wanted to though. The only thing low about them, is the price. Call and see them at
