His grandfather John Crawford, came from Greene county about 1785, when the father of the deceased, Samuel Craw-ford was about 11 years of age. William T was twice married. His first marriage was to Martha Allen, daughter of John Allen, and occured when he was aged about 26 years. To this union were born four children, three of whom surrive—E. H., of Foxburg; N. H., of Oakdale, Alle-gheny County, Pa., and Mrs. S. B. Ure, of Crafton, Pa. His first wife died about 1855 and on April 9th, 1857, about two years afterward, he was a second time married to Lucinda Gibson, daughter of Samuel Gibson, of Bruin, Butler county. Three children were born to this union—Mrs. J. M. Grant and Misses Laura B. and Mattie E.
