Will Try it Again.

Mrs. Greer and Wallace, their confessees and some of their friends met at the Schlesser Hotel in Pittsburgh last Monday.

Judge Stowe had refused to act as a conciliator or arbitrator, and the two remaining arbitrators set about to select a man to take his place. Each candidate presented a list of names as follows:

By Greer.—Ex-Gov. James A. Beaver of Bellefonte; Judge James H. Neale, Kitanning; Charles H. Wiley, Bloomsburg; Alexander Green Kirkpatrick, Easton; J. H. Donly, Warren; W. T. Davies, Towanda; W. S. Rice, Blakely; John S. Robt. C. L. Magee, Gen. Blackwell Pittsburg; John C. McElroy, of the City of Warren; Col. J. M. Jackson, Apollo; J. E. Taylor, Washington; Thomas Butler, West Chester, and John W. Reed of Clarion.

By Wallace.—Edgar Heber McDowell, Thomas Patterson, G. V. McKee, Judge Peterman, James McIntosh, J. Scott Ferguson, Congram and Hilliard, of Erie; Captain J. C. Gandy, J. K. Collins, W. J. Lewis, Judge Buffington and Harry W. Oliver, all of Allegheny Co.

The two candidates worked until nearly midnight on the two lists, and then agreed upon Hon. Wm. A. Stone of Allegheny to be the third man, and agreed upon next Monday for the next meeting, to be at same place.

The Gazette's account of the meeting ends as follows:

"The meeting was immediately adjourned to the waiting physicians in the corridor and reading room and carried across to the room of Mr. Gandy, where the choice of Congressmen was made.

Mr. Gandy said that the choice of Congressman Stone was received with satisfaction by both sides. Mr. Wallace's friends claimed that ex-Senator Gandy and one of their people selected as the third conference conferees were very bright indeed. Mr. Greer's friends were equally pleased and say that through Mr. Stone's name may be given on Mr. Wallace's list that does not necessarily mean that he is a bad man. Mr. Greer was asked how to like the choice he said that he was perfectly satisfied.

The Butler county people feel very confident in the selection of Mr. Stone, who they predict that John M. Grier will receive the nomination.

The Democratic Senatorial Conference will meet at Freeport to-day (Thursday) and will nominate Mr. Graff of Armstrong Co., as Mr. Marshal of this county does not wish the nomination. Frank Graff is a son of old Peter Graff, the manufacturer of woolen goods at Craigville, and he is said to be a very clever and intelligent gentleman of the strictest integrity.

How to Vote Under the New System.

Voters must give their name and residence to the officer in charge of the ballot, and if it is found that such person is entitled to a ballot, he is given one, and the voter pays the sum, and the voter will be allowed to go within the guard rail, unless his right to vote be challenged.

No person can vote more than once, unless whose name is not on the check list or whose vote is challenged for any cause.

A person who is admitted within the space enclosed by the guard rail, the officer having charge of the ballot, shall detach a ballot from the stub and fold it so that the voter prints his name on the back of the ballot, and the voter shall be allowed to go within the guard rail, unless he is out voting, ride. No ballot shall be voted unless folded in same manner.

The voter is entitled to one ballot only, should the voter spoil one, he can obtain another by returning the defaced ballot to the officer in charge. No ballot, whether or not, can be taken from the voter.

The voter, after obtaining his ballot, will then proceed to the booth and mark his ballot as he desires to vote. A cross (X) over the name of the party of the voter will vote the entire party ticket. Any voter desiring to vote a mixed ticket, or to have more than one party of the voter, must go to the right of the square in the center of the X in the square to the right of every individual name and leave blank those names which do not belong to the voter.

The voter must then fold his ballot and place it in the ballot box.

On Wednesday, Carnegie's 29th street was started up; some miscreants blew up a car load of steel billets on a side track near the 33rd street end of the street.

The mob was staked and Gen. Wiley ordered the police to disperse. The soldiers who were doing the moving, were so badly rattled that they kept in Mr. Rattigan's house for safety, and the deputy sheriff came to the door.

The crowd stood their ground and seized the drivers of the wagons and Mr. Rattigan. They showed no signs of giving up, but the soldiers who were doing the moving, were so badly rattled that they kept in Mr. Rattigan's house for safety, and the deputy sheriff came to the door.

That is when, as Gen. Wiley's orders called upon the crowd to disperse, our men, who had been with the soldiers who were doing the moving, were so badly rattled that they kept in Mr. Rattigan's house for safety, and the deputy sheriff came to the door.
