THE CITIZEN

The Sandwich Islands and Queen Lil.

The Hawaiian or Sandwich Islands are roup of twelve islands in the Polynesian group. Their location is several hundred miles south of the commercial routes between San Francisco, China and Japan. Seven of the islands are inhabited. Hawaii, the largest and most recently formed, is triangular, and contains 4,040 square niles. The total area of the islands is 6,100 square miles. All the islands are volcanic in formation, and the fertile porions are strips of alluvial soil around the coasts. The upper portions are well ad-apted to grazing, while higher up there are dense forests. Rain falls in abundance on the windward coasts, while the lee coasts are almost devoid of rain. The most tropical island is Kauai, where the land is fertile and easily cultivated Honolulu, the capital, is located here. The mean temperature at this town is 75 deg. The delightful climate makes this lace a Mecca for invalids, and in an hour's rive a delightfully cool atmosphere can be ound on the mountains. The principal oducts are sugar, rice, coffee, cotton andal wood, tobacco, oranges, lemon pananas, wood, hides and tallow. The Kanakas or pure natives of the Islands number about 37,500 out of a total opulation of about 66,000, of whom 3,000 e Americans. The pure natives are of are Americans. The pure natives are of a tawney complexion, inclined to clive, the hair is black and glossy, the eyes are large and lips full and nose flat and the people invariably of good stature. They are all-men, women and children-the finest swimmers in the world, and perform feats in the breakers that fairly terrorize those from the other lands. The Kanaka are fine canoeists, expert hunters and su-perb equestrians, both male and female. They love music, are imitative, and are quick to apprehend and learn. The native blood is steadily disappearing, owing to intermarriages, the discontinuance of na-tive sports, and the introduction of civil-ized clothing and whisky. A little over 100 years ago there were 400,000 of these people, magnificient physical specimens. To-day they have dwindled to less than

Those who have lived in Hawaii say that life in those sea-girt isles is ideal. The pen of Mark Twain has best described its beauties and its wonders. A lady who has spent many years there says: "One long summer in the open air is the sum and substance of it. Nobody is very rich and nobody is very poor. Every family has four things which contribute much to their happiness and comfort. These are a telephone, a piano, a sewing machine and a horse and carriage. People who cannot have these requisites are few and far between. The roads about the islands are unusually fine for driving, as they are made of pounded coral, which becomes very hard and firm without dust."

When Doctors All Agree.

It is a fact well established, that February and March are the most trying months to aged or enfeebled persons. Pneumonia, influenza and kindred chest afflictions, are most liable to get in their deadly work. There is but one thing to do, build up and fortify the system with a pure stimulent. Medical Men all over the country agree quart, and "Duquesne" at $1.25 per quart, and "Duquesne" at $1.25 per quart, or have these requisites are few and far between. The roads about the islands are musually fine for driving, as they are made of pounded coral, which becomes very hard and firm without dust."

As is now well known, Queen Lilinokalani brought about the present state of re-volt in Hawaii by promulgating a new constitution, which her ministers refused o sign. The instrument was to give her more absolute power, giving the control of affairs to natives and disfranchising forgners. She hates foreigners.

Queen Lil's. history is quite interesting Over a score of years ago a Dalmatian sailor named Jerko Dominis, after innumer-able adventures, hairbreadth escapes and feats of valor, found his way to the Ha-waiian Islands, where he married Liliuokalani, the daughter of the native chief, who in due time became queen, making him the partaker of the honors of royalty. As king he bore the name of Herman I. For 20 years he governed his subjects sat-isfactorily, and toward the end of 1891 he died. An account of the peculiar pageantry at "John" Domini's funeral, written by a Franklin young lady, appeared in our olumns in 1891.

John, or Hermann I., left a son, Hermann I., who is now six years old, and the boy's mother has been reigning as re-Queen Lil. knew that her husband was an European, but knew nothing about his elatives. She made strenuous efforts to relatives. She made strenuous enorts to find them, making inquiries on board every ship that touched at Honolulu. Finally the captain of an Anstrian corvette found the system is remarkable and mysterious. them in Dalmatia. He also found a wo man whom the late King John had mar-ried in Dalmatia when only a sailor. This woman has appealed to the Hungarian

The questions raised by the appeal of the special commission to the United States are serious ones. A protectorate is not defirable, as it would give this country no hand in the government of the islands, and yet would compel us to protect and defend them. On the other hand, the obstacles in the way of annexation are many. There is the Chinese question. How can the United States admit the 19,000 Chinese residents to citizenship? Most of these are coolies of the lowest type, brought from China under contract to work on the plantations at $15 per month. Besides this crude citizenship, there are 12,000 Portuguese, 6,400 Japanese, and the 37,500 Kan-

Do You Want to Make Money?

Do You Want to Save Money? -There+Are+More+Ways+Than+One+to+Get+Rich!-If you don't want to save money don't read between these lines.

This ad, is written for close cash buyers that are always open for bargains when there are any to be had, and if things had taken their usual course this winter this ad with all its wonderful bargains would never have appeared, but up to Jan. 1st we had a very mild winter Heavy leather goods and rubber goods have been very much slighted, and to tell the truth I am over stocked but I have a plan to unload.

It is simply a matter of business and concerns only money saving people. No others need read between these lines,

My plan to unload my surplus stock of boots, shoes and rubbers is simply this. I have got to lose some money on these, I am not going to carry them over until next season, I will sell them at any price first. Leather goods get hard, the life gets out of them, and they are unsaleable Rubber goods are even worse, for they will rot and become worthless, hence you can see at once and understand why this sacrifice must be made on goods that are now seasonable and just what you need.

One man's dollar is as good as another's if he puts it to the right use. It may cost something to read be-tween these lines.

If reading low prices will interest you, I will interest you. If you don't care for bargains you might as well stop right here. + "Cross road to let you off." Just at this time of the year there are more rubber goods worn than at any other time, and as rubber goods are piled me until I can hardly see daylight. I will tackle them first, and the prices I quote are less than first cost and if you are too conscientious to come and help me lose some money, you will have to go elsewhere a pay a profit.

The object is for you to make money and for me to lose it. Can you take part in such a scheme?

I will sell for twenty days men's rubber boots Lycoming make for 90, Boston rubber boots $2.00, Candee rubber boots $2.00, Woonsocke rubber boots $2.00; a pair of good canvas slippers goes with each pair, and if I can't produce any of the above makes at prices quoted, will surrender my claim on your attention in all future ads. or a round trip ticket to the World's Fair. Boy's rubber boots sizes 1 to 5 $1.50, youth's rubber boots 11 and 12 $1.00, ladies' rubber boots 3 to 8 $1.15, Misses' rubber boots 13 to 2 $1.00, child's rubber boots 7 to 10 90 cts., men's Storm King boots reduced to $2.50.

A farmer came to Butler broke. He sold 10 bushels of potatoes and went home with a wagon full of shoes. Where did he get them?

As soon as he sold his potatoes he went to Bickels, he got a pair good rubbers for himself for 40 cts, he bought a pair of warm lined rubbers for his wife for 25 cts, he bought each of the six children a pair of rubbers for 16 cts. a pair, he bought the hired man a pair of stogie boots for $1 50. and his grown up daughter a pair of fine shoes for $1.00, and still be had money too, sell do you know what he did? He got mad backed his wagon up to the door and looded his goods and left saying he did not want people to think he stole the goods or he would have spent the bal. of his money, he promised to call again.

When you get tired Stop! You don't have to read between these lines. Nor it is strictly Private.

If you are needing any leather goods come and see what I have to sell. I have one lot of ladies' fine button shoes for $1, one lot of sample shoes at $1.00 worth $2.00, one lot of fine gr. button shoes for 90 cts., one lot of serge gaiters for 50 cts, one lot of slippers for 25 cts., o Misses' shoes 85 cts., one lot of child's shoes 40 cts, one lot of infants shoes 18 cts. All of the above are about one half the regular price. come in and see bargains on our sample counter.

A word to the wise is sufficient -- that is sometimes it is, and sometimes they get left.

A man that likes nice shoes and needs a pair is not wise if he don't call and get a pair of Edwin Clapp's hand made shoes for $3.00, and if he don't wont to pay that much will sell him a nice dress shoe lor $1.25 to $2.00. We make a great many boots and shoes to order and do all kinds of repairing in connection with shoes. We have a large leather depart ment, and full stock of findings always on hand.
