During the past five years we have been sending the "Citizens" to quite a number of persons...

"A romping wild blow from the south. And woke the dreaming wood. It kicked the rose's crimson mouth; Hampered the poppy's bow; It crisped the white of the brook; Looped pins across the air; And round her pallid temples shook The dead girl's silken hair."

"The Gates Ajar" is now the favorite Chicago melody. The latest fall is—We intended visiting Chicago this year but cannot now because they opened the gates on Sunday.

An unusually warm spell is now designated a sizard. It is the antithesis of the blizzard. Some novel schemes for raffling, a scheme conceived by the followers of the kielie gods.

It will be to the advantage to our readers to carefully note the changes in advertisements. Much trouble is caused because we forget to have the same kind of religion in trade that we have in church.

Harriet will come at least a week late, this year, and the hay crop is not promising. Persons having legal business to attend to should remember that the doors of the Court House are closed on Saturdays.

K. V. McDonald won't watch pot by the Racket store, which has lately received full lines of summer underwear, clothing and hats. Notwithstanding Pennsylvania is one of the richest states in the Union, it is also one of the heaviest mortgaged states.

A city firm has purchased the fire clay on the Owen Brady farm near Millersburg, and proposes erecting a large fire brick and tile works there. Everybody who cannot save enough money to go to the World's Fair, will realize, this summer, what a distressing thing poverty is.

The members of St. Joseph's church, of Oakland twp., will hold a picnic on the Lane farm on the 4th of July, to which all are invited. At the meeting of Council last Thursday evening it was decided by a vote of 7 to 2 to build a public bath on Water street from West to Quay street, and the clerk was directed to advertise for bids.

In some sections of Berks county, owing to scarcity of farm hands, farmers are offering $1.75 per day and board for good hands during haymaking and harvesting. The Grand Sacred Concert in St. Peter's Church last Sunday night, under the direction of Prof. Lamb, drew a large audience and was one of the best ever given in Butler.

Wednesday was the longest day, and an old saying has it that cucumbers planted that day will grow as long as your arm. According to the almanac summer began that day. Mr. Eli Black has opened a merchant tailor shop in W. Sunbury, and is prepared to take orders in suits. He has samples of the best goods made, and will guarantee fit and work.

See note of Commencement Exercises of Prospect Academy, next Thursday afternoon in Critchell's Grove. The lecture that evening will be the hall, by J. Arthur Schlicher, on "Overeducation," which is an admission of 25 cents will be charged. At the late Quarter Sessions a notorious woman of Butler was acquitted of the charge of keeping a disorderly house; and some of the young fellows who were put on the stand are said to have since acknowledged that they prepared themselves for "lying like a gentleman" will soon become as fine an art in this country, as it is in England.

Kingler's "Snow Drift" is a good flour—that is, it makes good bread. It is one of the best flour in the market, and for which it is sold. Besides this it is made at home—by home labor—which means a living for some of your neighbors. Are you reading the Kingler articles that appear in this paper? If not, you are missing something.

The Butler Presbyterian dismissed Rev. W. K. Cozart to the Presidency of Allegheny, June 15th, and released Rev. Wm. M. Hays from the pastorate care of the church of Clintonville. Rev. I. D. Decker is about to remove from New Jersey to West Sunbury and take charge of the church there, and also to teach in the Academy as Vice Principal. The Presidency is to meet at Sunbury on the second Tuesday of September.

The pig-tailed laundryman, says an exchange, knows a little more than he tries trying. Instead of heating his iron just right for use he heats it scorching hot; then he plunges it into cold water for an instant, which cools the surface sufficiently to allow him to make a few ineffective passes, the heat gradually returning to the surface. If necessary he repeats this two or three times, till the iron is of the right temperature to ply his work uninterrupted. This saves the frequent changing of irons as by Bridget's method.

USE DANA'S SANSAPARILLA. IT'S THE KIND THAT CURES! The Butler Presbyterian dismissed Rev. W. K. Cozart to the Presidency of Allegheny, June 15th, and released Rev. Wm. M. FOR MORE INDUSTRIES AND THE HOSPITAL.

With our unlimited and unending supplies of natural gas and coal, in connection with competing railroads, Butler should have more manufacturing industries.

At a meeting of citizens in Harselt Hill, discussing the possibility of a connection with the Pennsylvania Railroad, remarks were made by Alexander Mitchell, J. H. Negley, E. D. Robinson, H. C. Wick and others, and a committee of organization consisting of W. H. Lusk, W. A. Stein, J. A. Troutman, L. C. Wick and L. D. Perdue were appointed.

In the matter of securing, if possible, the erection of the State Hospital for feeble-minded children in Butler, a committee was appointed consisting of J. H. Negley, E. Mackey, L. M. McQuinn, W. Campbell, J. C. Duffy, J. G. Stamm, W. D. Brandon, A. G. Williams, and C. A. Bailey; and the efforts of these gentlemen will be supplemented by those of the ladies of the Children's Aid Society.

At the meeting of Tuesday evening, the constitution of the organization presented by Mr. Lusk was adopted. The Association will meet on the third Tuesday of each month, the Executive Committee will meet every Tuesday. Officers were elected as follows: W. D. Brandon, President; Frank Kohler, Treasurer; and the following directors: W. H. Lusk, J. C. Duffy, J. G. Stamm, W. D. Brandon, A. G. Williams, and C. A. Bailey.

W. J. Adams has brought suit in ejectment against Jacob Erma and Chas. Seibach for 14 acres in Washington twp. Frank S. Clark has sued the borough of Butler for damages caused by changing the grade of the street; and John McQuinn Smith for running a sewer through the property of the borough.

PERSONAL.

Matthew McGregor, of Cherry twp., was convicted of criminally libelling Ward in town Friday. The breezes of sixty-eight summers have blown lightly over his head.

Prof. S. M. Meals, of this county, who had charge of the Emerson, Venango Co. High School, last year, has been re-elected as Principal of the same at an increased salary, $105 a month.

Mrs. Fry, widow of Jacob Fry of Peterstville, died on Wednesday. She was 82 years of age. Dr. Reisel of Petrolia has removed to Shannondale, Clarion county.

Miss Lillie Reiber of North street, left Tuesday for a visit to New York and Philadelphia. Miss Mary Ayers, as Julie DeMortemar, was second to none in the east. Her acting and her reading were specially effective. It was a full impersonation by a young lady well qualified in personal appearance, dramatic power, and the charms of voice and manner, from the Franklin Ave. account of Richelieu.

Rev. Praggi and wife. Will and Grace Praggi, Mrs. E. D. Dalrymple, C. Abrams, M. C. Heineman, Mrs. V. Lyon, Mrs. R. D. Rivlin and Lou Mitchell all at the World's Fair, and returned on Tuesday.

Emma and Clara Smith, of Allegheny, were home to the funeral of their father, Mrs. George Smith, who died on Tuesday. Her funeral was held on Wednesday at 10 o'clock, and was attended by a large number of friends.

Jacob Schawille is building an addition to his house. Mrs. S. D. Miller and family left on Tuesday for her parents home in Kansas. Mrs. W. J. Adams has brought suit in ejectment against Jacob Erma and Chas. Seibach for 14 acres in Washington twp.

George D. Ogden, the clever agent of the P. R. R. Co. here, and Mrs. Mollie Lee, daughter of Chas. McCandless, Esq., do not expect to be married until after their wedding trip.

A very pretty and fashionable wedding took place in Harselt Hill on Wednesday evening, June 14, 93, when in the Presbyterian Church in the presence of 300 guests the Rev. Yates presided. The bride was Miss Grace Lockwood and the groom was Mr. John Lockwood. The bride was accompanied by Miss Grace Lockwood, of Grove City. The groom by Mr. John Lockwood, of Grove City.
