A LIVELY engagement between the gov ernment and insurgent troops occured in the town of Nitcheroy, on the bay of Rio, last Friday. The insurgents attempted to take posses sion of the town, and were repalsed. Two hundred men are said to have been slain during the fight.

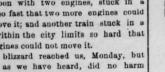

THE chief feature of the meeting of the Lincoln League, last Monday evening, was the speech made by James A. Galbreath, Esq., who criticized the tariff policy of the Democratic party, the financial views of the majority of the party as shown by their vote in the House on the silver question, and the income tax; and who paid a fitting tribute to the memory of Abraham Lincoln, whose birthday it was, and whose name honors the League. John H. Negley, Esq., reviewed the tariff legislation of the past; President Brymer appointed the Ward Committees for next Tuesday; Cyrus Harper made a fer remarks and sang two solos; several others made short remarks, the Lincoln Glee Club rofitable eveniug. The League should always remember
