THE OCEANIC AFFAIR.
On Friday last some union miners from Hillsdale and other parts in the county along the Shenango road came down to Onondaga and camped on the Hamilton farm, and boarded at the Hamilton house, which had been leased by three union miners who had been working in the Shenango Co. for some time. The miners were orderly themselves, but their striking notice was looked upon as a disturbance, and some noise was made which Mr. Jewell called the Sheriff's attention to.
Mr. Jewell, Sheriff Campbell, and Deputy Douthett, went next morning and talked to the leaders of the men, who professed to be there on a mission of persuasion and not of violence. They said that Mr.
Jewell had broken faith with them as to closing his mine, that they would do no unlawful acts, would keep off the company's property, not disturb or annoy any other miners, and that they would do nothing but what was just and right.
Mr. Jewell and the sheriff, after talking with the men, returned to their homes, and the miners returned to their work.

Accidents.
John Yogan, a farmer and old soldier of of the road with a pole which a team was hitched, while the stone rolled out of the way, and the disengaged pole struck Mr.

Yogan on the head and made him insensible. He died at the hospital, and was 32 years of age and leaves a wife and seven children.
