NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Words by the millions are devastating Alhambra in Allegheny county. A Pittsburg paper says that the little creature that is playing havoc among the trees is popularly known as "measuring ground."

A Jeweler in Oil City has discovered by posting this sign in the window: "Headquarters for Coney recruits in this doorway."

Nearly all the family of James Perry, of Cranberry, have been afflicted with the diphtheria, and a stranger is now nursing Mr. Perry and his wife, both of whom are popularly known as "measuring ground."

Samuel Delehanty, a Blair Co. prisoner in the Western Pen., cut his throat with a knife during music hour, last Monday.

Samuel Spencer, 50 years old, residing at Hartwood, Pa., is a prominent member of the G. A. R., and he himself from a beam in the barn to-day, for that day he was working in the barn.

Solomon Hook, who lost the Jury Commission through detention by the court, for that day he was working in the barn.

A case in which a man who is not a physician has been brought to the attention of the district attorney of Allegheny Co. last Monday. Mrs. Tuttle has been arrested by a number of physicians, but she has obtained no relief and they say she will not live longer than a few weeks.

The destitution among the miners in the field is a sad one. At Philadelphia, the other day, Mrs. Doherty, a widow, who lived among the miners, was found dead in a ditch.

A Franklin man got his safe opened by an expert, but he had no money, and the other man put the paper in the safe and locked it up, so he wouldn't lose it.

James Reed, of Oakland twp., cut his right ankle badly a few days ago while falling from a tree.

Walker Young of Mercer St. was thrown from a buggy Tuesday night and received injuries about the face and head.

Oil Notes.

The staying qualities of the Muddy creek field are remarkable. The field has produced about 15,000,000 barrels of oil.

A well was struck last Thursday on the J. C. Anderson farm, located in Allegheny twp., and three miles east of the North Washington developments in the north-east. The well is the property of Ackerly & Co. and it is reported that its oil in the fourth month of the year will be 1,258 feet.

Phillips struck another good well on the upper Campbell farm in Penn twp. Monday. It started off at 40 bls. an hour.

East of Greene City, Stewart & Co., on the Iremburg farm, found a good show of oil in the hundred foot sand and are now drilling to the fourth; if no good there it will probably be tried in the hundred-foot sand.

Bell & Co. on the Duffey, also had a very good showing in the hundred-foot sand, and are drilling to the lower sand.

South of Calvary, Brown, Wick & Co. have struck a good well in the 100 bls. day, Davis farm; it is good for 100 bls. a day. They are placing material for No. 5, on the same lease.

At Glade Run, Bonny & Co. have a new well on the Kline farm, making 35 bls. per day.

Near Amherst, Peables & Gates No. 1, on the J. C. Jones farm, is good for 15 bls. per day natural.

H. W. Christie & Co., No. 4, Winner farm, is 30 feet in the one hundred-foot sand.

Christie, Aggers & Co., No. 2, on the same farm, are 50 feet in the sand with 500 feet of oil in the hole. It will make a well.

John Campbell & Co. No. 1, on the Campbell farm, is making 60 bls. per day and improving.

A Suggestion.

Did it ever occur to you that there are drugs and drugs—that drugs are like everything else—there are good, bad and indifferent. There is nothing else which is positively bad if it is not good, there it is good. Our policy has always been to have nothing but the best.

When you want drugs come to us and be assured of fresh pure goods, and always what you ask for or your prescription calls for. It may not always be drugs you want either. We always have on hand a full line of sick room requisites.
