LOCAL AND GENERAL.

No paper will be signed from this office next week, on account of it being the week of the glorious Fourth.

We're 118 years old. Do you smell gunpowder?

The eagle will spread with delight on the Fourth.

The longest and hottest days are upon us.

The monument arrived at the P. & W. depot last Saturday, on two cars.

Everybody is in a melting mood these days.

The salary of the postmaster at Chicago has been fixed at $1,200 and at Freeport at $1,300. Butler remains as it is.

A largely attended picnic was held by the Presbyterians at Slipperyrock Park on Wednesday.

Treasurer Martin has improved his office by the addition of a handsome wire partition about the counter.

Messrs Sauter & Groll are building a machine shop on the Patterson lot, just below the Pittsburgh bridge.

The faculty of Slipperyrock Normal was re-elected, and Miss Lulu Kerr was elected librarian of the school.

During a recent storm an oil tank at Brilliant, above the Pittsburgh pumping station, was struck by lightning and burned. The blasting oil ran down the hill to the river and threatened to set fire to the pumping station, but luckily did not. The flames lighted Sharpburg as bright as day.

The Butler club took a little trip last week, and played at Natrona and Freeport. The game at Freeport was lost by a score of 17 to 15, but the former show was won by our boys by a score of 5 to 2. But one error was made by the Butler club in game, and their play was marked by the spirit and life we all like to see on the diamond.

By the school annual published last week we see that the total receipts of the Board for the year ending June 5, 1894, were $21,947, and that the largest items of expense were Teachers' salaries $16,428; text books $3,283.44; interest on bonds $1,284; maps and charts $1,636.75; and Janitors' wages $1,153.22.

An exchange thinks that the ringing of church bells should be done every eighth day. "People can go to the church services and prayer meetings on time as easily as they can go to a show, theatre, concert or circus. In these days of a multitude of watches and clocks and ear piercing clanging bells is no more necessary than a fifth wheel to a wagon."

This is not to say that in this part of Pennsylvania the custom of New York State are, however, over-run by the pests and vegetation is destroyed. They will show up in this part of the country in 1896.

By that time the Democratic party will be out of power and can stand the affliction. Democratic control of the government and the local police in one year, is too much for the average citizen.

The severe storm of last Sunday did considerable damage in the northern part of the county, notably in the vicinity of Washington twp. Burns belonging to Charles Hedin, J. Baxter Campbell and East Samuel Hilliard had roofs blown off, as had the house of L. N. Meals. The wind also carried off two rigs belonging to John Humphrey, Esq.

LEGAL NEWS.

John Benson of Millersport was brought to Butler and placed in jail Tuesday evening, and next afternoon was taken to Dixon. He was a strong, active man until last Saturday when the onset of the sun struck him down while working on a boiler. He was taken home the next day, but so violent that it was thought best to restrain him. He was violent while in jail, and had to be taken away, strapped to a cot prepared for him.

J. H. Finkle, agent, had summons in ejectment issued to Geo. S. Vanderlin for a tract of land in Venango twp. adjoining Ritz. Vanderlin and company.

A recent decision handed down by Justice Fell of the Supreme Court will be of interest to lawyers and laborers alike. It upsets some pet theories regarding liens for work.

The P. S. & L. R. was inspected a few days ago by some Eastern railroad men, and once again there is some talk of the Beech creek railroad being extended from its terminus in Clearfield Co. to this town.

The soldiers monument was hauled up from the depot, Wednesday, and is now being erected. The monument was in twenty pieces, the largest being eight feet high, and it took a great deal of work to haul it to this place.

At 3 a. m. Wednesday three men entered the store of Jack Howard near Parker and roamed Howard's feet till he told them where to find $170. in money. They carried off a large lot of jewelry, cigars, etc.

From the last Monday of Dec. 1893 to the last Monday of May, 1894, five months, there were 99 births and 23 deaths in Butler. In the last Ward there were 64 births and 13 deaths; 2d Ward 21 births and 4 deaths; 3d Ward 6 births and 2 deaths; 4th Ward 7 births and 1 death; 5th Ward 11 births and 3 deaths. The above is taken from the Assessors' returns, and we can give the figures on the county in next paper.

The parade of the Elks, at Jamestown, N. Y., last Thursday, was an interesting one. The Buffalo parade was a beautiful buffalo and team, and in the parade it was led by two men dressed as Indians. About fifteen members of the Butler Lodge were present and enjoyed themselves largely.

At the session of the Grand Lodge on Thursday, Brother W. T. Meachling of Butler, was appointed District deputy for Western Pennsylvania.

The storm that passed to the north of Butler last Sunday afternoon hit the North Washington oil field and blew down a number of derricks, then turned and hit the field east of Millersport, where it downed eighteen derricks. At the latter place the storm was in the nature of a cyclone, and some of the rigs were twisted. In Slipperyrock twp trees and fences were blown down; Charles Breiden's barn, just north of West Sunbury, was blown to pieces, trees were uprooted on Robert McDermott's place, half full so thick that it could be taken up by the shovel-full, cutting the grain and corn, and a cow was killed by lightning. In Winfield twp, also, the storm did some damage.

Mark McBride, Ernest Cronenwett and George Manford were in the "Glorious" and "Will" Platform, in which 87 of the best riders of New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio were entered. McBride rode splendidly and captured eleventh prize, defeating a number of the crack runners. Paul Cronenwett was second, and Ernest Cronenwett on account of having run with the firm name of Corry. Such action shows that a very petty spirit may often animate those whom one would not expect it from. The management of the Greenville race was characterized by liberality and generosity, and they played that contemptible trick upon Cronenwett.

Children's Outing. An effort will be made by the Children's Aid Society of this place to assist the Fresh Air Party, of Butler, Pa., by sending home in Butler county for a number of children during July. The object of this movement, as is probably known to all, is to give the city children an outing in the country for a few weeks, and the result will be to give the children a better idea of life in the country, and to give them a chance to see and do some of the things which are so interesting to them.

Commencement exercises are being held at the Slipperyrock Normal school as we go to press. The graduating class is very large, and the exercises are well attended. The Butler county graduates are: Hilda S. Cristy, Slipperyrock; Vera M. Crawford, Slipperyrock; O. C. Culbert, Buena Vista; Geo. M. Dombart, Jacksonville; Chas. O. Douglas, Evans City; John D. McBride, McAdams; Nellie McCandless, Ide; Clara M. McCollough, Chilton; Robt. C. McMillan, Slipperyrock; Jas. E. Marshall, Portersville; Fred T. Peterson, Slipperyrock; Nellie M. THE BANQUET.

The fourth annual banquet of the Alumni Association of the Butler Public Schools was held at the Opera House on Thursday last.

The Rev. T. B. Roth, D. D., President of Thiel College, delivered a very able address to the association in the Opera House proper after which the party was directed to Armory Hall where the tables were spread for 300.

Having been appointed by the committee of arrangements Chief Marshal of the party, the meeting of the officers, on Monday July 2, 1894, at Butler, Pa. I hereby accept the position and make the following appointments:

A. G. Williams, Adjt. Gen. and Chief of Staff; R. J. Phelps, W. A. Clark, R. P. Root, H. H. Redie, Stephen Bush, E. B. Black, Joseph Rockenstein, W. M. Starr, W. H. H. Kiddle, Frank Kohler, T.
