LOCAL AND GENERAL.

A certain up-town young lady was heard singing recently:

My heart is very sad to-night, 'Tis in the air, I cannot tell just which it is—Dyspepsia or despair.

—Pay your taxes before Sept. 1st.

—The Butler Fair date is Sept. 4-7.

—Our grocers are paying $2.50 a crate for dried raspberries—dried on the stems.

—All the coal mines in the county are now being operated.

—The High School picnic at Slippery rock on Tuesday was a pleasant affair.

—The members of the Episcopal Church are picnicking at Slippery rock today.

—The German Lutheran congregation held a very enjoyable picnic at Schaul's grove, north of town, on Wednesday.

—Co. E is preparing for the annual encampment at Gettysburg—August 11th to 15th, inclusive.

—The High Constable captured sixteen hounds from a lot of small boys who were playing on the street near the West Penn depot, Wednesday evening.

—The work of repair on the Presbyterian Church will be completed by the coming Sabbath. Services will be held at 11 a. m. and 7.30 p. m.

—A Lawn Party will be held to-night (Thursday) at Mrs. Wm. Walker's on Washington St. by the Ladies Aid Society of the M. E. Church.

—The wheat harvest is about over and the yield is good. Considerable hay was also made this week, and it is turning out better than was expected.

—W. J. Vincent, the Chior's barber maker, who became insane from the effects of a sunstroke is reported to be getting better.

—W. H. Grime has resigned the management of the Slipperyrock creamery and Mr. Bailey, of Ohio, engaged in his stead. Mr. Bailey is said to be a good man.

—According to a New Castle paper, a Butler county constable attempted to serve an illegal warrant in that town, and got himself into trouble.

—There are few more disappointing things in life," says the philosopher, "than a balloon ascension to a man with a stiff neck."

—As usual when the preserving season approaches, sugar shows a tendency to go up in price, but the increase this year comes weeks before demand for the article begins to be active.

—Politicians are not the only things that develop and ripen in Mercer county—about 40 bushels of black raspberries have been shipped from that county to this town, during the past week or two.

—The Oxford-Fair crowd at London on Monday attracted a large crowd and ambassadors, statesmen, diplomats and dignitaries were numerous. The contest was decidedly in England's favor, the score being 51 to 31 wins.

—Homer L. Castle of Pittsburgh, prohibition candidate for Lieutenant Governor will speak at Needle Point school house, 24 miles from Reboft Station on the Evans City road and 2 miles southwest of Petersville, Monday evening.

—An Indiana minister inadvertently made an announcement like this: "There will be services at 3 p. m., at St. Ann's in the East End; there will also be services at 4 o'clock at St. Margaret's in West End. I anticipate will be baptised at both ends."

—Mr. Samuel Riley of Brownsville Pa. raised a field of "Water Fire Wheat" on the farm of Hon. D. B. Dautsch, Forward ward that has yielded 41 bushels to the acre; farmers would be wise to procure seed from Mr. Riley of this wheat.

—Votes were cast in the Times contest for the following additional ministers this week: Rev. J. H. Breading, North Hope; E. Cronenweat, Butler; J. R. Williams, Chioros; R. C. Yates, Zelienople; A. J. Hutcheson, Butler; J. Reno, Slipperyrock.

—The onion has more virtues than most vegetables. It is a prime nervine and sedative. It is also credited with the ability to ward off malaria in any form and it has many of the qualities of quinine. Moreover, raw onion is unexcelled as a remedy for a weak brain.

—The local retail advertiser who fails to direct his advertisement three times out of four to the women is making a big mistake. Women make the big money. It has been proven over and over again that they are the readers of advertisements. Moral: Advertisers in such a manner as to strike the women.

—A child story came from a Western town. A bad, small boy crawled under the bed when his mother wanted to punish him. She could not get him out, and she left him there until his father returned that evening from the city. When his father came and was told of the case, he started to crawl under the bed to bring forth his disobedient son, but was paralyzed when the little fellow asked: "Hello dad is she after you too?"

—Highest cash price paid for grain of all kinds at J. C. Breading & Co.'s new roller mill, West Sunbury, Pa.

LEGAL NEWS.

NOTES.

Walter McCall, of near Enclid was arrested on Wednesday for felonies at the seat of Miss Duffy and was released on bail same day.

The will of W. H. Shira of Parker twp. was probated and letters granted to E. C. Shira, also will of A. E. McElroy of Oakland twp. and letters to F. A. McElroy. Letters of Admin. on estate of Kate Dougherty were granted to Wm. J. Dougherty.

The jury in the case of the com. vs. Albert W. Woodley, indicted for the murder of Mrs. Buchanan of Allegheny, stayed out for thirty three hours, and then brought in a first degree verdict, which was remarkable. There are now six men in Allegheny Co. jail under sentence of death.

Sylvester Critchlow, the first man tried for murder in the Homestead cases, is again in jail in Pittsburgh this time on a less serious charge. This time he is used by the jury for a study of the piece.

Terence Clane, of Franklin was committed to jail lately for non-payment of tax. He has been owing school tax to the amount of $1. He has had no work for about a year, and has put the collector off from time to time on the ground that he was unable to get any money ahead. The collector finally gave him a certain time to pay, and on his failure, the arrest was made.

The arrest and commitment are in conformity with law, and illustrate an interesting phase of justice. At the end of 30 days the costs, including board in the jail, will have amounted to $12.50. When in order to secure his discharge, Terence will have to get out papers under the law, and pay the costs of $12.50. This brings the total expenditure up to $13.50 and still the school district is owed the $1. It is a legal question whether this case comes under the insolvent act or not.

A bill in equity filed in Allegheny Co. last Thursday, by Hannah Bailey of Butler Pa., against J. M. Shields, trustee of the West Penn. Coal & Coke Co., John W. W. John W., John F. and Thomas Bailey. The plaintiff states that in December, 1888 she made a deed giving all her property consisting of a large amount of land in Allegheny and Butler counties, to J. M. Shields as trustee. Shields was to act as her trustee, manage her estate and pay her the income. With her consent he could sell property and invest money. In June 1924, she executed another instrument revoking the trust deed giving her property to Shields. She says that Shields sold property of hers in Pittsburgh for $25,000 and has not accounted for it.

She has had no work for about a year, and has put the collector off from time to time on the ground that he was unable to get any money ahead. The collector finally gave him a certain time to pay, and on his failure, the arrest was made.
