The leading sporting event in the base ball line in Butler for many years was the visit of the celebrated Uniontown club on Saturday. They came in a Pullman Palace car, heralded by a record of 20 straight won games this year and none lost, and accompanied by the justly famed Rutter brass band. The club had with them a dozen or more friends and backers in addition to the band making a crowd of about 60 in the party.

After their arrival over the P. & W. at 1:30 they gave a parade which was taken part in by the two clubs. The game was started at 3:30 before a crowd of about a thousand, who packed grand stand and part in by the two claus. The game was started at 3:30 before a crowd of about a thousand, who packed grand stand and bleachers to suffocation.

The game for the first 5 or 6 innings was much as expected. The visitors batted O'Brien rather freely, and this with his wildness gave them a lead of 7 runs. The home boys gave a fine exhibition of fielding. About the seventh inning Butler began to bat, and Altman, the crack Princeton pitcher was substituted for Wilhelm. The home boys took kindly to the phenomenon's speedy inshoots and Barr led with a home run, while Jones, O'Brien and others made two and three baggers in sufficient number to bring the score, at the close of the first half of the numb inning, up to 9 to 8 in favor of Butler. This should now have been a pretty safe game for Butler, but O'Brien made the mistake of giving the first man his base on balls, and the visitors brought in two runs. The score was 10 to 9.

The P. A. C. club of Pittsburg will play

MR. A. J. McCANDLESS:
On the 2nd day of April, 1892, I commenced to use your new cure for one of my horses that had the heaves very bad, and continued to use the medicine for my horses that had the neaves very bad, and continued to use the medicine for about forty days and the horse did not show any signs of a return of them. It is now about a year since I quit givin the medicine and the horse has never sowed any signs of heaves, and I feel stisfied that he is properly cured.
