A peculiarly sudden and sad death Friday last. His nephew of about 8 years of age whose home is near Harwatching the men unloading hay with a rope runs through. He did not seem much hurt and after caring for the injured hand the family did not think it was anything to give cause for unsatiness. That night he suddenly became very ill and a physician was sent for, but the little sufferer died about one-half-hour after he arrived at his bedside. The cause of death was Tetanus caused by the injury to his hand. The parents of the little boy were overcome with grief at his sudden death.—
