The petition growing out of the water agitation was presented to court on Monday by Mr. Forger. The petition represents that the water Co. has charged too much for the water, furnished impure water, and insufficient quantity, etc., and asked court to remedy matters. The court granted a rule to show cause why the petition should not be granted retroactive to last Monday 10 October.

The 26 sheep that dogs killed for Geo. King, some nights ago, cost the county $62. Since time of 1899 the county collects the dog tax, and pays for the damage done by dogs, but the claims for damages must be made promptly.
Miles Querry of Cass township, Blair county, notified the township judges Monday, April of the present year that he had some sheep killed by dogs in June 1932. The auditors assessed the damages at $21 which the county commissioners refused to pay, alleging that Mr. Querry should have promptly notified the township judges instead of waiting ten months.
The court was then asked for a mandamus to compel the township judges to pay but Judge Bell, of Blair Co., before whom the case was tried, refused the mandamus and the ground that where a statute does not limit the time for a thing to be done it must be done within a reasonable time, and that the spirit of the law in 1899 required prompt notice of injury to sheep by dogs to enable the owner to recover damages.

An authority on such matters says walking sticks should not be carried to church nor when making ceremonies calls. We may add to this that it is not strictly good form to go calling without an umbrella and to be carrying one when you leave the house of your host.
The Willard House has opened with M. H. Brooks, Lou and John Kohler clerks, and their accommodations are second to none. The hotel has been given a complete remodeling and is as neat and clean as a pin. Mrs. Mattie Reihing is owner and we bespeak a liberal patronage for her house.
A writer in a New York paper gives this blood-brothered advice to lady readers: "Do not seem interested in other people's affairs. Appear cold, reserved and distant. People will imagine you a self-confident, and you will hear more choice gossip and interesting stories than the most sympathetic and expansive woman in existence."
"Every time it rains the ground, it gets wet again." It has been a long time a long time when wettings for the ground of the Mississippi valley this year, and the heavy rain of last Friday, Sept. 7, 1934, was the most welcome thing that could have happened. Even the thunders that accompanied it was music sweeter than that of a grand opera.

THE FAIR OVER.
The fair closed Friday after an exhibition that, while falling short of other years in point of attendance, was very satisfactory. The exhibit of horses, cattle, sheep and chickens was fair, and the fruit, etc., displayed were really better than expected.
The main building, called Floral Hall, held most of its usual appearance, and a number of booths were unoccupied.
Bicycle Races.
A bicycle race was run on Friday at the fair for a silver cup, the winner being Mark McBride.
The race was run in three heats and each was taken by McBride. The race was very interesting and many were of the opinion that bicycle races would furnish more entertainment for future fair goers than some of the mixed horse races that have recently been run.
The World's Record Broken.
The great event of Friday at the fair was the attempt of the First Ward running team to break the world's record of 35 seconds on the 250 yards run, held by them. 3,000 people viewed the magnificent race run made by the team. They ran the first 200 yards in 21 3/5 seconds, the last 250 yards in 28 1/4 seconds and Joe Heineman made a fine coupling; the full time being 52 seconds.
