During the dance fog of last Monday night the fire bells were rung, and the house companies came out, but could not locate the fire, and consequently rushed around in the dark and fog and accomplished nothing. The fire happened to be on the hill just above Dufftown, on the side of the limit, and also out of the borough, but the incident illustrated the necessity for a system of fire alarms in the borough.

Dr. Clarke Robinson delivered the first of his lectures on Shakespeare in the U. P. lecture room, Monday evening. He had a large audience, and as he is an unusually entertaining and instructive speaker, his audiences will probably grow in numbers. His lecture of Monday evening was on "Mind and Works," the second on the list on account of having mislaid some data; and that of Monday evening, the 15th inst., will be on the man himself, or biographical.

Last Friday evening Allen McCall was telling war stories to the Wick House and among other he told of the capture of Fort Steadman. It was a Union fort, and the Confederates, commanded by General Gordon, assaulted and captured it. Allen helped to defend the fort, and told of the Rebels swarming over the sides and driving the Union soldiers out of it. While he was telling the story, Mr. Price, the lecturer, came in and listened to it; and after Allen finished asked him if he saw him there. Allen said no, and Price said he was one of the first of those Rebels to scale the walls and attack the garrison. Then he told of the attack of the mud in the ditch, which was up to the middle in depth, of their hiding under the abutments to keep from being shot until the Rebel batteries cleared the way, and of the final charge. Price was a member of the 31st Georgia, and McCall of the 40th Pennsylvania.

Oil Notes.

Out of twenty-four wells drilled in the Cooperstown-Brownsville field last month twenty-three were producers, and their average production is 42 3/4 bbls. The best well is doing 120 bbls. Sixty wells were drilled and thirty rigs were built at the end of the month.

At Cooperstown fourteen wells were drilled, four rigs were going up and three wells producing. Eighteen buildings for business purposes have been erected, and the population of the town has increased from 75 to 200.

McConnell & Co. of Bradford are building a rig on the J. S. Hays place in Centre twp. near Unionville. Twenty years ago a well was drilled about a mile from this location, which had an excellent sand and a little oil.

The Phillips well on the Sheidan, Cuyahoga district, began flowing with three bits in the sand. Phillips will drill three wells on the Haggans, Greenwood & Co's No. 2 on the Haggans is yet doing 100 bbls.

In the North Washington field 24 wells were drilled and 14 rigs up and building. W. J. McKee sold a half interest in some leases on the Meigs and Bell farms to McCoy Bros for $10,000.

Charley Haslett's well on the Martin tract in Westmoreland is going to be a good well after all, probably a hundred barrels. Smith & Co. are drilling on the Kirker, just south of the Martin.

Deets & Co's well on the Gold, near the Woodbine House in Oakland twp. is reported to be doing 75 bbls from the fourth sand.

Arbuthot & Co. are drilling on the Arbuthot and Marland farm near Keokuk.

More wells were completed during Sept. than August in the daily production companies' declines in the same ratio.

Dr. Byers of Butler struck a good well on the H. Bertrick tract, one mile N. of Herman, yesterday. When the well was but 6 feet in the sand it flowed 18 bbls in 8 minutes.

Burks, Marshall & Co. are reported to have sold their oil interests in the vicinity of Mars for $50,000. The property consists of 285 acres of leases containing 7 wells doing 150 barrels a day.

A good well was brought in on the Sams Hilliard farm, 1 mile north east of Anasville, North Washington field, last week.
