-Very few souls have basked in tropical sunstine all their days, and never felt the chill of a frigid zone. Most men have had more than one wrestling match with fate when a leap over the precipice, even though it proved to be a leap in the dark, would have been a relief. It is a seriou thing to face the possible experience of three score years of life, for if there are mountain tops to climb there are also deep and dark valleys to explore. You may not choose between good and ill fortune, but must share the common lot of mingled joy and sorrow. It is at times a heart breaking word, when it seems as though all the odious imps of fate had been let loose to heap obstacles in your path.

The evenings are long enough now for every person to devote some time to reading. The best literature is the daily newspaper, and the best newspaper is The Pittsburg Times. It is complete in every department, gathering promptly the newsfrom all parts of the world and presenting all sides of every public question fairly and intelligently. Its market reports are models of accuracy; its departments for women readers and for the farmer are useful and entertaining, and its serial stories are by the most noted writers. The aim of its publishers is to make The Times a paper for the home above everything else, and they have succeeded admirably.

The Times is delivered by agents for one cent a day, or will be sent by mail for thirty cents for one month; fifty cents for two months; seventy-five cents for three monts; $1.50 for six months or $3.00 for one year. If there is no agent for The Times in your locality write for sample copies, which are sent free, and terms to agents.—adv. -Try, T. A. Morrison's home
