Thirty-six years ago last Thursday night the great fire of June 14th, 1870 occurred. It was very cool last Thursday evening and there was fear of a repetition of the event. This has been a remarkable spring with, as one of our exchanges puts it, the mercury jumping from the cellar to the sixteenth story and back again, in short notice.

We neglected last week to mention the fact that our friend and neighbor George Shierhan had purchased an interest in the "Eagle" paper and printing office. George has been the foreman and local writer of the paper for a number of years. He is a reliable, progressive man and we wish him success in his new venture.

Tickets can be had from the students and exchanged at the depot. All are invited especially the Juniors in general and friends of High School in general.

The June number of the sprightly quarterly, Tales from Town Topics, appeared last week. It is a very interesting and modern art, and presents as its leading feature a brilliant metropolitan story entitled, "A Very Remarkable Girl." Cynthia Platte, the "remarkable girl" in question, is bright, cynical, observant and there is a certain repetition of the conventional trappings that both those who surround her. There are other characters equally fascinating. No more interesting companion than "A Very Remarkable Girl" could well be found for an idle summer afternoon. Short stories, sketches and verses make up the remainder of the book. Town Topics Publishing Company, 208 Fifth Avenue, New York.

Pennsylvania Railroad Company's Summer Excursion Route Book.

The most complete publication of its kind. The passenger department of the Pennsylvania Railroad Company will, on June 1, publish its annual Summer Excursion Route Book. This work, which is compiled with the utmost care and exactness, is designed to provide the public with short descriptions of the principal summer resorts of Eastern America, with the routes for reaching them and the rates of fare. There are over four hundred resorts in the book to which rates are quoted, and over fifteen hundred different ways of reaching them or combinations of routes are set out in detail. The book is a complete and comprehensive handbook of summer travel ever offered to the public. The record shows the routes, names and striking color, in several maps, presenting the exact route over which tickets are sold. The book is also profusely illustrated with the half-tone cuts of scenery along the route of the Pennsylvania Railroad and elsewhere.

Any doubt as to where the summer should be passed will be dispelled after a careful examination of the contents of this publication. After June 1 it may be procured at any Pennsylvania Railroad ticket office at the nominal price of ten cents, or, upon application to the general office, Broad Street station, by mail for twenty cents.
