BETTER THAN DIAMONDS.
Good health is better than diamonds. Health is life. No pleasure can be taken without it. It is the most precious thing in the world. It is the one thing that we are careless about. It is the one thing that we neglect their little ailments and run right into the rocks of disease. All diseases have insignificant beginnings. Consumption is the fruit of neglected ailments. A slight cold develops into pneumonia or bronchitis. A little indigestion grows into "liver complaint."
The best way to cure a disease is to prevent it. The next best way is to catch it before it develops to the worst stage.
Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery is a medicine for the whole body. It searches out the weak spots and builds them up. It is a strengthening, purifier and a cure. It puts the digestive system into an active, healthy condition, purifies and enriches the blood and forces out all poisons. Taken in time, it will cure 98 per cent of all cases of consumption. It is a purely vegetable compound that works in perfect harmony with the nature of the body and produces strong, hard, healthy flesh. It has cured hundreds of cases of consumption, bronchitis, asthma, chronic cough, indigestion and kindred maladies, which had withstood the effect of every other medicine.
A large number of testimonials, letters and photographs of those cured are printed in book form. We will send the book (50 pages) free, if you will send your address, also three nickels and 6 cts. for postage to World's Dispensary, 103 North Second Street, Buffalo, N. Y.

THE CITIZEN.

Returned The Compliment.
One seldom hears a stary more piguntly favored with the real Old New England humor than that told about Uncle Gideon Goodwin, who, eighty years ago, was one of the characters of the town. At that time the Methodists used to gather at the houses to hold their prayer meetings, and as Gideon was a devout worshipper of that creed, he was a regular attendant. One night the meeting was held at the house of Harlow Harden, and Gideon was just as the enthusiasm of the assemblage was wrought to the highest pitch, Uncle Gideon, as he was always called, arose to his feet and, lifting up his hands, shouted in a voice full of fervor: "Glory to God!" Hardly had he uttered the chorus of amen which this utterance called forth died away, when Goodwin, who thought that the praises were meant for him, and was bound to return the compliment, jumped up and said: "Glory to you, too, Uncle Gideon!" That broke up the meeting. The solemnity of the occasion, so thoroughly shaken, could not be restored, and there was a speedy adjournment.

The Toothpick Industry.
Insignificant articles like the toothpick represent the investment of millions of capital, the employment of skilled labor, utilization of the latest inventions, the consumption of vast quantities of wood, and the operation of a long line of complex activities. These small articles play an important part in the economies of all civilized nations. To stop at once the manufacture of toys and all not really useful articles in these nations would be to put a stop to a large part of the work and producing forces that constitute the origin of civilization. Some European nations live mainly by their work on articles that are really only mere toys and playthings. In the United States we are rapidly adding to our production of all these articles that find favor abroad, while we have originated scores of novelties in the amusement line that are being sold and imitated abroad. There is in humanity a chord that responds to the touch of frivolity, and the American Wood Worker, and that chord has enabled the inventors of ingenious novelties to coin fortunes out of their trifles.

He Said The Same Thing.
Horace Greeley once wrote a note to a brother editor in New York, whose writing was as illegible as his own. The recipient of the note, not being able to read it, sent it back by the same messenger for elucidation. Supposing it to be the answer to his own note, Mr. Greeley looked over it, and likewise was unable to read it, and then said to the boy, "Go and take it back. What does the cursed fool mean?" "Yes, sir," said the boy; "that is just what he says."

When Pennsylvania in two years spent over $100,000 in hawk and owl hunts and not only squandered good money, but actually did mischief to the farming interests, which are ostensibly sought to be protected by such expenditure. An examination of the stomachs of these birds by the Ornithologist of the Department of Agriculture has proved conclusively that ninety-five per cent of their food was field mice, grasshoppers and crickets, which were infinitely more injurious to farm crops than the birds themselves.

sleepy Grass.

In some parts of New Mexico there grows a grass which induces a somnolent effect on the animals that graze upon it. Horses, after eating this grass, in nearly all cases sleep standing, while cows and sheep almost invariably lie down. It has occasionally happened that travelers have stopped to allow horses to feed in places where the grass grew pretty thickly, and the animals have had time to eat a considerable quantity before its effect manifested themselves. In such cases horses have gone to sleep on the road and it is hard to arouse them.
The effect of the grass passes off in an hour or two, and no bad results have ever been noticed on account of it. Cattle on the ranches frequently come upon patches of this grass, where they feed for perhaps half an hour or more, when they wake up and start feeding again.
The programme is repeated perhaps a dozen times, until thirst obliges them to go to water. Whether, like the poppy, the grass contains opium, or whether the sleep-producing property is due to some other substance, has not been determined. Mr. Fredrick V. Colvill, Botanist United States Department of Agriculture, says: "The so-called sleepy grass mentioned in a recent article in Pearson's Weekly is known technically as Stipa viridula, and is known from reliable persons to have a narcotic effect on horses and other stock."
