It is wise to estimate the future by the experience of the past. A man is judged by the company he keeps.

Applying these proverbs to Mr. Quay and his efforts for his own advancement and to secure power in the Republican party...

1-That Mr. Quay is looking ahead for future business in the line of politics, for himself, for his associate, Mr. Cameron...

2-That Mr. Quay means to attain these ends by and through Republican agencies if he can, but by Democratic help if he must.

3-That Mr. Quay is friendly with the Democrats and that his friendship with him means satisfactory advantages to them if he shall be successful.

How any intelligent citizen, conversant with political affairs and events, can reach any other conclusions is manifest to all eyes...

QUAY DODGES GILKESON ANSWERS. I am a personal friend of Senator Inasmuch as the Cameron and our Hon. J. D. Cameron official relations...

Tax matter of itself is a moral one, to a far greater extent than we are accustomed to admit. Both in quantity and quality...
