LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Waites, all next week.
—Wait for Waites, September 23, all week.

—Fair week and Court week come together, this year.

—Waites' Comedy, Premium Band and Orchestra, all fair week at popular prices.

—Investigate Waites plan for the ladies free tickets, on Monday night.

—The residence of A. O. Hepler of Institute Hill was burglarized last Saturday night.

—Services in the United Presbyterian church on next Sunday at the usual hours, 11 A. M. and 7:30 P. M.

—A sermon by a lady will be a novelty for the people of Butler. You can hear one in the Baptist Church Sunday.

—Ho for Concession tomorrow, Merchant's Picnic. Special leaves Butler at 7 A. M. and returns at 9 P. M. Tickets $1, Children 50 cents.

—Owing to our columns being crowded we have had to curtail some of our correspondence, a fact that we regret. We will have plenty of space next week.

—The farm of a man named Schell, east of town, was struck by lightning during the storm of Wednesday evening and destroyed by fire, with all its contents.

—One of the new and high buildings in Pittsburgh has been condemned. Both a stone and was used for part of the foundation, and the immense weight crushed it.

—The contractors for the paving of Millin St. are making remarkable headway. By the end of the week the street as far west as Chestnut will be ready for the sand and brick.

—Five thousand people attended the Tarentum Fair, Tuesday—the opening day—and a larger crowd was expected, yesterday. Some Butler people attended yesterday.

—The Grace Lutheran church will again have a lunch stand at the fair, this year for the benefit of the church, now in process of construction, and will appreciate the patronage of friends and the public in general.

—There is no sense in the old adage, "Everything is lovely and the goose hangs high." It is simply a perversion of the saying that "Everything is lovely when the goose hangs high," which means that, when wild geese fly high, it is a sign of continued fair weather.

—Our grocers are paying 20 cts. for butter, 12 cts. for eggs, 40 cts. for potatoes, 35 cts. for apples, 10 cts. for cabbage, 20 cts. for tomatoes, 40 cts. for peaches, 15 cts. for spring chickens, 35 cts. a dozen bunches for hogs, 25 cts. for celery, and 8 cts. a doz. for corn.

—A peculiarity of the apple crop this year is the "putting off" of the fruit. It is so late in the season that it is not in some localities; it is phenomenally large in other near-by localities. An item from Parkersburg, W. Va. says the apple crop in that region is the largest ever known. Every tree laden to its top with capacity with perfect fruit. One firm will have over 25,000 barrels of fruit.

—The funerals of Rev. William White and Mr. George Dallas Harvey occurred at the same hour, 2 o'clock P. M. last Saturday. The remains of both were interred in the North cemetery.

—A notice of his life and long useful service among our people as a minister and teacher will be seen in another place. Mr. Harvey will be remembered as an industrious man and a man who did his work on many of the fine brick buildings of this town. He was aged 89 years 8 months and 19 days.

—"I see," said the man, "that a man out near Franklin, has been blown up by nitro-glycerine and they can't find enough of him to hold an inquest over. Such accidents are not uncommon in the oil regions where men get reckless in the handling of explosives from long familiarity with them in shooting oil wells, and they do not excite special wonder any more. I remember being in a restaurant in Bradford once when it was crowded. I think it was between noon and the oil exchange and the speculators, brokers and others were taking their lunch. A man came staggering into the restaurant, and he was about as drunk as he could be and keep on his feet. He had something under his arm wrapped in a newspaper, and he placed it on the counter and asked for whisky. The bar-keeper told him he had enough, and he got very hot over it. Finally he said he would get even by blowing everybody in the room to the place where you can't get a drink, leaving the wrapper off the package. It was a can of nitro-glycerine. Say, you should have seen how quickly that room was emptied. Swish, and it seemed as if everybody was swept out of the room. And the bartender went through the window, and that was the end of the show. Finally he straightened up and tried to get behind the bar to get a drink, leaving his can of explosive on the counter. One of the more daring spirits sneaked into the room and snatched the package, and then we scooped down on the drunk."

A Cold Day—Light Robbery.

The dwelling house of J. C. Gibson, near Six Point, Butler county, was invaded last week one day, about 2 o'clock P. M. by some unknown person.

Gibson was at the time, out in one of the fields; one of his sisters was in an adjacent wash-house; one was in the barn; and a third was sleeping in an easy chair in one of the down stairs rooms.

The thief, dressed in dark clothes, went up stairs, fired three shots, and took therefrom $120 in cash and $200 in checks.

On the forenoon of the same day, Mr. Gibson was in the field, and a stranger, who was in the bank, at the time, and it is thought that the thief, who had been seen by Mr. Gibson, followed him home, and after collecting himself and making the necessary arrangements, he entered the house with the result above stated. A short time before the burglar took place, a full dark companion man stopped at Mr. Joseph Crawford's, and made inquiry as to the latter's property.
