LOCAL AND GENERAL.

—Our local wool buyers are paying 13 and 18 cents.

—The frost of Tuesday night cooked the tomatoes.

—Last excursion to Niagara Wednesday, October 16.

—J. M. Meharg, of Penn twp. had 750 bushels of oats, this year, from 10 acres.

—The gas meter's play-day is over and now it begins to settle down to steady work.

—Tobacco kills microbes. Hence, there is no danger of kissing a man who smokes. Girls, paste this in your hats.

—Mr. R. Fisher of the Butler Dye Works near the Centre Ave. bridge invites your patronage, and as he does good work he deserves it.

—The ladies of the Pleasant Valley church of Cherry twp. will give a "Plate Social" in the church, next Saturday evening.

—Read Stein & Son's new locals regarding their blankets, underwear, dress goods etc. They always keep the best, and sell it at reasonable prices.

—Report of Butler Public Library for the month of September: Number of adult books taken out, 1,231; juvenile books, 532. Total, 1,763.

—Last Thursday evening, a dreamer, awakened by the six-o'clock bells, ran out and rang the nearest fire-bell, thus setting the whole town in commotion.

—Voters who have not yet paid a State or county tax within two years should remember that Oct. 5 (next Saturday) is the last day for the payment of the tax to insure a vote at the coming election.

—Dixon & Co. sold their gas well on the Wm. Dixon in Penn twp., Wednesday, to the Forest Oil Co. for $6,000. The well has a rock pressure of 480 pounds, and the lease includes 70 acres.

—Our grocers are paying 22 for butter, 15 for eggs, 30 for potatoes and turnips, 50 for beets and carrots, 35 to 40 for apples, 25 a doz. bunches for celery, 35 to 40 for spring chickens, 50 for onions, 1 ct. a pd for cabbage.

—Two car loads of grapes arrived in town, Monday, and half a car load, Tuesday. Large baskets of Concords from Chautauqua Co, N. Y. sold at 6 baskets for $1. The smaller baskets containing the white and red grapes come from Erie Co.

—Cas. Sherman's new store and bakery on Centre Ave. is now in full running order. He has a neatly furnished ice-cream and oyster room back of the store-room, and his new and complete oven will bake 1000 loaves a day.

—A large number of tickets have been sold for the Y. M. C. A. concert to be given in the U. P. Church on Friday evening October 4th. The following artists will take part: Miss Cora Daugherty soloist, Edward C. Melvin violinist, Herman Melzer violoncellist, Charles N. Boyd pianist.

—The leader of Berg's team slipped and fell at the Lowry House crossing Saturday afternoon, and the other horse fell upon him. Almost every day a horse or team falls upon our paved streets. Drive carefully on the paved streets.

—At the meeting of the 5th. and 6th. Heavy Artillery in Pittsburg last Thursday, R. H. Long was re-elected President of the 6th., and among the members of the executive committee are Greer McCandless, Geo. Ralston, Wm. Watson, W. B. Evans, and B. F. Crowe of this county.

—From high scientific authority comes the statement that any person wearing a pair of rubbers and standing free from contact with any object in the room will never be struck by lightning. Now that the lightning season is about over, we hasten to lay this precaution before those of our readers who have been spared.

—Last Sunday we were too cold, while the previous Sunday we were to hot. Out in Colorado it was a change from summer to winter, with 14 inches of snow at Greeley, nearly eight inches in Denver and a blanket of snow over nearly the whole State. It was a record breaker for so early in the season.

—An Oil City merchant tailor was in Butler last week, with his samples, soliciting orders. What success he had we do not know, but we do know that the people of this town and county can do as well in both made-to-order and ready made clothing in Butler as they can do anywhere. We lately met a farmer living in the southern edge of the county, near the Allegheny Co. line, who said he could do better on clothing in Butler than in Pittsburg.

—State Supt. Schaffer has appointed Friday, Oct. 18, as autumn Arbor day. In referring to the origin of this custom he says that in response to the first Arbor day proclamation in 1885, 50,000 trees were planted by teachers and pupils in Pennsylvania, and the annual recurrence of the event had led to the planting of thousands of additional trees and to the better adornment of the grounds around the school and the home.

We lately heard of a spring breaking out on a road in Worth twp.—a case somewhat similar to the Cherry twp. case of a year ago, when a strong spring started on the road passing through the Jno. Smith place and is running yet. During the past twenty years there have been numerous instances of springs and wells in the county being drained by oil wells and coal mines, and also of salt water penetrating rock and clay and destroying them; but what causes springs to break out? We would like to have an article on this subject by one of our local geologists.

—Three car loads of grapes from the Lake country will arrive in Butler tomorrow, which with these already received will make at least six car-loads for Butler this week. They come from Chautauqua county, the Southwest Co. of York state, and which borders the lake just below Erie Co. this state. A carload consists of 3,000 baskets of 9 pounds each, and some of our dealers have been selling them this week at 17cts each or 6 for a dollar; though Mr. Walker one of the grape growers of the county named tells us will be higher next week.

Annual Excursion to Rhododendron Park via Pennsylvania Railroad.

The Pennsylvania Railroad Company announces that their annual autumnal excursion to Rhododendron Park, Lloydsville, will be run on Thursday, October 10.

At this time of the year a trip over the forest clad mountains of Pennsylvania in their autumnal splendor, unsurpassed in richness and variety of color by the works of the greatest artists, is most enjoyable. The acme of perfection, however, is reached at Rhododendron Park, where nature in all its wildness and in modern cultivation is preserved with a most picturesque effect.

A special train will leave Pittsburg at 8 00 A. M., and stop at principal intermediate stations between that place and Cresson, the latter point included.

Excursion tickets for this occasion, good to return until October 12, inclusive, and permitting of stop-off at Altoona on the return trip, will be sold at $3 00 from Pittsburg, $2 40 from Greensburg, $1 25 from Johnstown, 70 cents from Cresson, and proportionate rates from intermediate stations.

The extremely low rates that prevail for these excursions render them very popular, and the opportunity offered by this year's excursion should not be missed.

PARK THEATRE.

TIM MURPHY, IN HOYT'S "A TEXAS STEER."

In speaking of Tim Murphy's and Chas. Hoyt's funny play, "A Texas Steer," which will be presented at the Park Theatre for one night on Friday, Oct. 4th. The New York Recorder says: "The revival of A Texas Steer" at Hoyt's Theatre last evening, in despite the bad weather. filled the house with an audience that would have made any manager proud, and "standing room only" was displayed shortly after the first act began. The audience was very enthusiastic. Tim Murphy as Maverick Brander, was, of course, the centre of attraction, and the scene in his hotel room in Washington, after he had been elected to congress—kept the audience in a constant roar of laughter. Miss Dorothy Sherrod, was heartily greeted the moment she appeared on the stage as Bossy. The singing of the field hands brought the house down, and they were enchored several times. Wallace Jackson as Brassy Gall, James J. Manley, as Colonel Pepper, and Byron J. Harlan, as the private Secretary, put everyone in splendid humor. In the second act, Miss Bessie Grayson, as Dixie Stile, the orphan from Indiana, fairly shared the aplpause with Mr. Murphy, that was aroused by the funny scene between the Congressman and the Orphan, and Miss DuRoy appeared to advantage as Mrs. Brander. Chas. Allison, who took the part of Christopher Columbus Jr. Fishback, a colored statesman, should not be over looked. His stride into Brander's room in search of that mission to Dahomey, and his enforced stride out, made everybody laugh heartily. In fact, from the beginning to the close of the performances the audience was in a constant roar, and there was not a hitch to mar the general hilarity. Mr. Hoyt, the auther, was called out at the end of the third act, and was heartily cheered. He made a neat little speech, thanking the audience and saying that he was glad he had got Mr. Murphy before the public once more as the leading star in the play that had already enjoyed a run of 400 nights in New York. The audience shouted for Mr. Murphy, who answered with a short but humorous speech.

Miss Nora O'Brien who stars jointly with Charles B. Hanford and Elihu R. Spence this season is a graduate of the Loretta Convent near Niagara Falls, where she graduated with highest honors she will appear as Virginia in Sheridan Knowls Virginius when the company appear at the Park Theatre, Butler —It appear here soon.
