Here there is a brisk demand for bright, active, entergetic, and wide awake young men and women, who are thoroughly qualified to do business. For these the demand is far beyond the supply. Many times has it been our pleasure to confer upon such young men and women the training which has enabled them to secure lucrative and pleasant positions, for hundreds of others, there are still golden opportunities. The question is, will you avail yourselves of them? It is our aim to make this institution peculiarly a twail yourselves of them? It is our aim to make this institution peculiarly a 'peoples school.' We find our most atisfactory field in helping young men und women of limited means and acquirements to preparation that will fit them for taking a position upon the lad-ler that leads to success. In our class rooms we welcome every one who wishes to make the most of himself. Our teachers are capable, scholarly and generously alive to the welfare of their pupils. Young friends, do you aspire to develop your powers of usefulness, and for making your influence felt in the world? Would you be something more than a mere "hewer of wood and drawer of water" for other people? If so, read this letter again and ask yourself if we are not right in advising you to enter at once upon a course of careful business instruction. If you are near by, come and see us: if not, write to us. Tell us your hopes and plans, and we shall be only too glad to advise and aid you. We shall be glad to give full particulars of the splendid work we are doing in our school, courses of instruction terms, etc. May we not see or hear from you soon;
