LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Valentines are on sale. Next Sunday will be Ground Hog day. Next Valentines day will soon be here. The "new woman" has a perfect right to propose this year.

The chap who owns a sleigh doesn't seem to be in it this winter. New Castle has completed an electric light works at a cost of $150,000.

On Monday over 5,500,000 bushels of coal went down the Ohio river. She was the first woman to complain that she had nothing to wear.

Lack of trade is bitter, but results from good advertising are sweet. R. J. Fowler expects to have his new mill at Mountain in operation next week.

The general admission to the prize fights at El Paso next week will be $20. One of our young ladies will not play with cats any more. It is a leap year resolution!

Hiram Lester, said to be 128 years old, died at the Henry county poorhouse in Georgia. A patent has been granted to W. H. Hay, of Portersville for a tubing and casing elevator.

No Mande, dear, because the young eagle is an eagle it doesn't make a young ball. The Pennsylvania State Dairyman's Association will hold a meeting at Meadville, March 4, 5 and 6.

George Vogelgy has rented the Shaffer store room on Main st. and will remove his cigar store there. An exchange says "Don't loaf about the streets and depend on the Lord for your daily bread. He isn't running a bakery."

If you have something the people need, tell them about it through the columns of the newspaper, and they will respond to your profit. Hundreds of loads of the finest ice one could wish to see is being hauled from Morrison's pond. The ice is 10 inches thick and as clear as crystal.

If a doctor makes a mistake he certainly tells it. If a merchant makes a mistake he crawls out of it. If an editor makes a mistake he puts it on a large sheet of paper for the world to look at, and in every community there are cranks who think they are models of wisdom because they occasionally disagree with the editor.

A novel way of baking potatoes is with a sausage. The large potatoes are cut and slice from one side an inch and a half in size. Take a small scoop and remove part of the inside. Fill with sausage, or chopped beef and pork well seasoned with salt. Cover the filling with the slices of potatoes. Cut off Stand the potatoes in a baking pan and bake in a moderate oven.

There is considerable agitation in Meadville over the enforce ordinance pending in the Council, which provides for keeping children and youths off the streets after a certain hour at night. A mass meeting was held in that city Monday night in the interests of the ordinance.

On Oil City neighbors are similarly agitated in regard to mad dog legislation. In their case it is a few-cent ordinance that is wanted, not a curfew law.

A peculiar case was decided in favor of the defendant, G. Conter, at Franklin the other day. Conter formerly owned the Empire refinery at Reno and when it burned received $7,000 from insurance companies. He afterwards collected $7,000 from a railroad company, $6,000 from a railroad company, $6,000 from a railroad company.

The Borough Primaries. The primaries of last Saturday were attended—both Republicans and Democrats did considerable hunting—on the borough ticket the only contest by the Republicans was between J. G. Mathers and Robert Pringle, for High Constable, with Mathers the winner.

In the 1st ward Henry Korn, John Herdman and W. J. Hollibaugh were each willing and anxious to serve as constable, but as Korn led in the number of votes he is the candidate.

In the 5th ward, W. P. Brown, the present constable, and Robert Stewart did some hunting for the same office, with the decision in favor of Brown.

The Democrats had four candidates for Justice of the Peace and only three to nominate, and early in the afternoon it was admitted by almost every one that one of the gentlemen would be deemed to represent the party.

The nominees of the three parties for borough and ward offices are as follows: REPUBLICAN TICKET. Borough—Justices of the Peace, Maj. C. E. Anderson, R. E. Gilchrist and R. C. McAbey. High Constable, John B. Mathers. Overseer of the Poor, J. Harvey Miller. Auditor, H. L. Graham.

Accidents.

Will Covert of Portersville, was thrown from his buggy and severely cut about the face, a few days ago. J. L. Seaton, of Euclid lately had two ribs broken by a fall.

E. H. Adams, of Wick station met with quite a serious accident Monday. He fell from a broken board in his hay mow. A peculiar accident occurred to John Black, a New Castle teamster, last week. He was unloading cord wood at a mill, and went to the horse's head to lead them forward a few steps.

He took hold of the lead horse's bridle but with his left hand and placed his right hand on the end of the wagon tongue. The horses instead of going forward, reeled backwards, jerking the neck yoke up, catching his middle finger between the ring and the tongue, severing the finger between the first and second joints.

On Friday last week an accident occurred at Big Run, Jefferson county, so distressing in details as to shock the entire community. Samuel A. Greene, a photographer, had been out hunting, and upon arriving home he placed the shot gun on the floor of the kitchen for a few moments while he stepped into another room. Several of his children were playing in the house and one of the little boys took hold of the gun and in some manner discharged the contents. The man shot struck a five year old child on the side of the head, literally tearing away one-half its face, killing the little one instantly.

Some of the shot struck another child, but not fatally, the shot piercing one of his ears and passing through the fleshy part of the cheek. LEGAL ADVERTISEMENTS. ORPHANS' COURT SALE!

By virtue of an order and decree of the Orphans Court of Butler County, Pa., made on the 23rd day of January, 1936, in and to the undersigned, John N. Young, Adm'r, of the estate of John N. Young, late of this county, deceased, I will offer for sale at public auction on the premises, on SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 29, A. D. 1936, at one o'clock P. M., of said day, eighty acres, more or less, of land, situate in said township, county and state, bounded by the following lands, to-wit: Mergers on the north, bounded by and adjoining lands of Henry Doer on the east, bounded by the lands of Mergers on the west, and bounded by and adjoining lands of Henry Doer on the west, about and under good state of cultivation, balance in pasture land, well watered, good frame house and barn and out buildings, and good orchard thereon, and located within the city limits of Butler county, Pa., on Butler branch of West Penn R. R.; title good.

TERMS OF SALE.—One-third of the purchase money to be paid when the sale is confirmed by the Court, and the residue in two equal annual payments thereafter, with interest from confirmation of sale, and to be secured by bond and mortgage on the premises. The plot of their property is briefly as follows: Peter Amos Dunn, manager of the Universal Finance Company, has caused for a friend named Tompkins, an art crank, a certain valuable statue of Niobe for safety he elects to send to his own home which is under the dominion of his wife's family (two sisters and a brother) who live with Mrs. Dunn, not a sentimentalist, he is a decent, good-hearted gentleman without too great a regard for the sentimental value of the statue, beyond what is suggested in his catch phrase—"there is no trip into his house and the workmen entrusted with the insulation wrapped the statue around the feet of the statue. When the electric current is turned on, it vivifies the statue which promptly strolls into the theatre to see the play. Dunn in a vein of repartee which is exceedingly clever and amusing, Dunn's family members are so kind as to give "Niobe" and Galates" and, they return, he induces the fair Niobe to change her dress, before he has not herself arrived, and she is introduced to the family. Complications of the dried kind, but humorous in tone and execution, heartily enjoyed by all present. The play, which is all made pleasant and the elderly proprietor of the statue makes her his wife, and she is introduced to the family. "Niobe" comes to the Park Theatre, Friday Jan. 31, with a capable company of several operators having secured leads in that vicinity.

A Suggestion.

Did it ever occur to you that there are drowsy and that drugs are like every thing else. There are good and bad and indifferent. There are also which are positively bad. It is for the best. Our policy has always been to give you the best. When you want drugs come to us and be assured of fresh pure goods, and always what you ask for or your prescription calls for. It may not be the drugs you want, but we will always have on hand a full line of sick room requisites.
