 The Coronor's Verdict.

The Coronor's Verdict. The Coroner finished his work on the McBride inquest last Thursday afternoon. The testimony of the other two men was in substance the same as the preceeding three. The County Detective gave a description of the shanty, and its location, but nothing was developed. The Jury after being out a short time re-turned a verdict of "death from unknown causes." canses." Messrs Painter and Murrin appeared for the five men in Jail, and District Attorney Christley assisted the Coroner.
