Business always seems good when there is plenty to do, whether there is any money in it or not. This is always our dullest season of the year, but we propose making it different if prices will do it. We have the largest stock we ever had and that is saying a great deal. We really have to many kinds of everything, and for thirty days we are going to give you 6 boxes good axle greases for 25 cents; harness oil 50c per gallon, or if you want sweat pads for collars we have a great lot of good ones for 30c each, worth 50c. We have a lot of buggy shafts ready to put together for 50c per pair.

Has your horse a sore neck? Buy a new collar, only one dollar for work collar, or one dollar each for team or buggy bridles; or do you want a blanket or robe? We don't want to pack them away: have about one thousand left and will close them out at less than wholesale price. It will pay you to buy now even if you don't need them this winter.

Public interest will steadily increase, and the question how the men whose votes turned the scale at the last election are satisfied with the results under the administration they elected, will make the campaign the most intensely exciting in the history of the country. The New York Weekly Tribune, the leading Republican family newspaper of the United States, will publish all the political news of the day, interesting to every American citizen regardless of party affiliations.

affiliations.

Also general news in attractive form, foreign correspondence covering the news of the world, an argicultural department second to none in the country, market reports which are recognized authority, fascinating short stories, complete in each number, the cream of the humorous papers, foreign and domestic, with their best comic pictures, fashion plates and elaborate descriptions of woman's attire, with a varied and attractive department of household interest. The "New York Weekly Tribune" is an ideal family paper, with a circulation larger than that of any other weekly publication in the country issued from the office of a daily.
