-The statistician has at last got down o the startling and powerful influence of the bicycle on the trade of the country. He finds that in fif een industrial branches which have been, most affected by the eyeling fever, there is now a yearly loss of $112,500,000. Those who make a busi-ness of catering to the wants of horse riders were as follows: and drivers have suffered to the extent of $45,000,000 annually, "horses and livery" showing a deficit of $20,000,000, "pleasure vehicles," $15,000,000, and "harness and saddles," $10,000,000. The bicycle is responsible for the falling off of $13,500,000 in piano sales, $7,000,000 in jewelry and $4, 000,000 in watches. The consumption of cigars has dropped $7,000,000, and of confectionary by $6,000,000, while tailors mourn a loss of $10,000,000, and the purveyors of dress goods and millinery a similar amount. The street railways are estimated to have suffered to the extent of $3,000,000 annually but in all probability this is an absurdly low calculation. Dr. W. P. Mellroy, dentist, formerly known as the Peerless, Painless, Extractor of Teeth, has located permanently at 111 E. Jefferson st., in Butler, opposite Hotel Lowry. His attention will be given to general dentistry and operations of all kinds by the latest devices and and up-to-date methods. Charges for extracting deducted where artificial teeth are insorted. Till recently this cost $6 per dozen extra. Also a special price will be given on sets of teeth to all who get extracting done before September 1st, '96. Bear this in mind People should make every effort to preserve the teeth nature gave them. To day modern dentistry aims to do this more than ever before. No cavity is too small to fill. A good tooth is worth more than a diamond A perfectly clean tooth never decays. A tooth past filling can often be crowned and restored to usefulness. Pretty teeth and pretty eyes add much to your appearance and are an advantage in a business and social way. People should make every effort to preserv

Doing Great Business.

Nothing succeeds like success, and the success that is crowning Joseph Liebler's efforts in the insurance business verify this statement. Most everybody knows Joseph Liebler is the hustling and energy of the Manhattan Life Insurance Company of New York, and has been doing a mammoth business in that line for some time past. He has just returned from a business trip to Pittsburg, where he had been called to insure his brother-in-law, Peter Schott, the well-known trunk manufacturer of Lawrenceville, for $5,000 and and $2,000 respectively. Among the many policies taken out in the last three weeks are the following: Charles L. Conway, liveryman, $5,000; W. H. Ritter, the well-known nominee for the senate on the Republican ticket, $5,000; Christ Fletcher, the hackman for Gregg, $2,000; Mr. Niblock, of Petersville, faumer, $5,000; John Weyman, farmer, $5,00 postoffice, where he will make it pleasant for everybody, ladies especially, as he is a ladies' man, and knows how to entertain them. Do not forget that the Man-hattan Life is the oldest and most reliable life insurance company in the world, and that a well-known Butler county man.

Children's day was observed in the Baptist Church Sunday, and in the evening a musical and literary program was rendered by the little folks, assisted by the or-chestra and enoir. The seating capacity $N_{\rm ever}$ was so complete of the church was over-taxed and "standing room only" was the cry early. The little ones all did remarkably well, and the solos, choruses, etc, were enjoyed by the udience. Rey. Collins and Superinter dent Davency deserve much credit for the nanner in which the following program
