

LEGAL NOTES.

GRAND JURY PRESENTMENT. After paying a high compliment to the Court House and the condition of the...

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

1840.

Maine went Hell-bent For Governor Kent And Tippecanoe And Tyler too.

1896.

Votes fell in showers For Governor Powers. An avalanche For sound finance.

—Much either is being made. —Time to begin fall advertising.

—Schools are now down to hard work. —Coca fritters are the luxury of the season.

—The Superior Court has annulled the Livestock Act. —Work at the bottle works was resumed Monday.

—The most popular slang with the squirrel is "nerched tomed ma." —Flanagan's electric apparatus to take parasites out of old well seems to be a success.

—Quite a number of our young folks left home for different colleges, Monday and Tuesday.

—There will be a meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary of the Y. M. C. A. next Monday afternoon at 8 o'clock.

—Greenville melons, raised by Mr. Templeton, are on sale in our groceries at 4 cents a pound.

—A Pittsburg man makes a business of shipping human bodies to Philadelphia medical colleges.

—A Butler man drove his horse from Butler to Meadville, last Friday—and the horse died.

—Grand dances in Armory Hall tonight, also Friday and Saturday nights, in the interest of the Rescue Hook & Ladder Co.

—The man who says he ever saw a loverlier September than this is—well, he's fit to take the stump and do campaign work.

—To avoid colds, and perhaps fever, go outdoors early these nights, no matter how greatly you may be tempted to sit on the porch.

—These cool nights are gentle reminders that Jack Frost is once more making his annual march from the north—and will soon be here.

—All Butler will probably go to see the Butler base ball club beat the stuffing out of the Pittsburg League team on our grounds next Monday afternoon.

—This world is full of Antiquarians at present. Coming up to meet the other Antiquarians we passed two young men telling crowds how they did it before 1873.

—It is claimed that by wrapping fruit in old newspapers it can be kept for two years. Care should be taken however, to select papers on which the subscription has been paid.

—If you don't want to hear politics discussed, the best plan is to stay in the home, every corner, hotel, office and public place in town you can hear the question solved by silences.

—During the family's absence a thief entered a house and stole a bottle of beer and half a dozen pair of socks. That night the socks were returned with a note saying that the thief had seen a note that one size and asking why more than one bottle of beer wasn't kept on ice.

—Our grocers are paying 15c for butter, 12c for eggs, 20c to 25c for potatoes, 20c for apples, 40c for onions and turnips, 7c a dot for corn, 3c to 5c a head for cabbage, 50c to 60c for peaches, 20c a dot for apples, 2c a lb. for tomatoes, 10c a quart for lima beans, and 25c to 30c a dot for celery.

—A movement is on foot that will create a force in Pennsylvania. J. Carson Mercey, county commissioner of Allegheny, is having prepared a bill to be introduced at the next session of the Legislature providing that all church property shall be subject to taxation the same as any other property. Commissioner Mercey will also bring the matter before the annual convention of the county commissioners, in Reading next month.

Sixth Pennsylvania Reunion.

The annual reunion of the Sixth Pennsylvania R. A. will be held in Union Veterans Legion Hall, No. 25 Sixth avenue, Pittsburg, Thursday, Sept. 24, at 11 a. m. The Fifth Pennsylvania R. A. will meet at the same time and place. The former regiment was mustered on Sept. 13, 1864, had 13 companies, and held its first reunion in Pittsburg Sept. 13, 1894. Major Charles W. present president of the association, raised his company July 13, 1861, and was commissioned February 19, 1862. Companies A, B, D and H will reunite at the same time and place.

REV. W. R. HUTCHINGS, Captain Company A. THOMAS H. McCLAVIN, 1st Lieutenant Company A. DANIEL GRAYLATH, Captain Company D. CHARLES J. MARR, 1st Lieutenant Company H.

Special Order No. 3. Hereby appointing Corporal J. W. Brown, Company H; Corporal Albert J. Shrader, Company A; Robert McKeen, Company B; Butler, Pa., and George Burser, Company D of Trenton, Pa., as staff officers for the reunion of the 24th brigade, 22d army corps, at Pittsburg, Pa., on the 24th of September, at 11 o'clock a. m., at 45th Sixth avenue.

Special rates on all railroads 24 and 25 for all persons desiring to attend. For further particulars inquire of committee.

OIL NOTES.

The procuring agencies are paying 1.12 today. BROWNEHEADS—The Eastern Oil company has completed a new well on the Beebe farm near Brownsville, that is making 75 bbls.

ANDREWS FIELD—Beale No. 1 on the West farm came in last Thursday and is good for 150 barrels. COTWELLVILLE—The Dutch Oil Co's well on the McGeeley field up with oil when the sand was tapped.

GHEZERT CITY—Campbell & Murphy are drilling on the Brown or Gliggert farm, 2 miles north-west of Greencastle.

The Conestoguite Fair.

The forty-fourth annual fair of the Crawford County Agricultural Society will be held in Conestoguite, September 29th and 30th and October 1st. The society has this year added a new and attractive feature in the exhibition of farm, orchard and dairy products by any Orange, the entries for which already guarantee and assured success. The prizes for trotting, pacing and running races are very liberal and will bring out the flyers. Visitors to other fair wishing to see the final round-up of all combined, in one, should not fail to attend at Conestoguite.

MARRIAGE LICENSES.

Dr. Hession and wife Emelton are the guests of James Vance. Miss Chisley, daughter of J. G. Christy, has opened a restaurant at 120 East Jefferson St. West door to Nigger's hardware. James M. Egan and Mary Etta Barz, both of this county were married at the Waverly by Rev. John J. Davis on Wednesday, 11th inst. It was interesting news.
