A Story About Uncle Jake.

While in Washington some years ago Uncle Jake Ziegler, of Butler and Captain John Hastings, of this town, came to the city on a political mission. Meeting them at the National Hotel we were introduced to the latter country philosopher. Uncle Jake was feeling quite "trapped," as Hoare jokingly would say, and was full of "Mejering" and good humor. Uncle Jake saw that he had made a hit with us, and seemed to make an extra effort to be jolly. One instant we distinctly remember. As we walked along, a very large and very "crisp" colored "lady" passed us. She was dressed within an inch or two of her life, and swept along like a stately ship as soon as she saw that Uncle Jake stopped, assumed a solemn expression and a dramatic attitude and said:
"She walks in beauty like the night
Of cloudless climes and sunny skies,
And all that's best of dark and bright
Meet in her aspect and her eyes."
And then Uncle Jake and Captain Hastings laughed heartily—"Punsy's Spirit."

The New-York Weekly Tribune

FOR FARMERS and VILLAGERS, FOR FATHERS and MOTHERS, FOR SONS and DAUGHTERS, FOR ALL THE FAMILY.

With the close of the Presidential campaign THE TRIBUNE recognizes the fact that the American people are now anxious to give their attention to home and business interests. To meet this condition, politics will have far less space and prominence, until another State or National occasion demands a renewal of the fight for the principles for which THE TRIBUNE has labored from its inception to the present day, and won its greatest victories.
Every possible effort will be put forth, and money freely spent, to make THE WEEKLY TRIBUNE preeminently a NATIONAL FAMILY NEWSPAPER, interesting, instructive, entertaining and indispensable to each member of the family.
We furnish "The Citizen" and "N. Y. Weekly Tribune" FOR $1.50 PER YEAR. CASH IN ADVANCE.
