TAKE NOTICE.

To the members of Republican County Committee:
You are hereby called to meet at Lincoln League Hall, in the borough of Butler, on the 27th day of February, 1897, at 1 P. M., to fix the time for holding the Republican primaries in Butler county for nominations for Congress, jury commissioner and delegates to the state convention and to transact any business that may properly come before the committee.

A. B. C. McFarland, E. ROBINSON, . W. COOPER, Secretaries.

CHAIRMAN McFarland calls upo the County Committee to meet on Saturday afternoon of this week for the ose of fixing the time for holding the Republican primary for making nominations for Congress, Delegates to the state convention and Jury Comissioner, and we understand that the idea is to fix the primary for one month hence-or Saturday, March 27th.

We suggest that this would "crowding the mourners," so to speak; that their are about sixty polling places in the county and that a four weeks canvass would give a candidate less than half a day for each district; that so short a canvas would give new candidates no chance whatever, that a special election for Congressman has not yet been ordered and that there may be ne special election; that there will probably be several candidates for Jury Commissioner and Delegates who will wish to make the acquaintance of the Republicans of the county and state their cases; and that the date for the state convention has not yet been fixed and it is not known who the candidates for State Treasurer and Auditor General will be Let us have at least a two month canvass.

In several districts of the State move rid of the conferree system of making nominations. The late campaign cal ed attention anew to the evils and dar gers that seem to be inseparable from that system, and prompted the vote of many parts of the state to deman tricts the proposition is that nominations shall hereafter be made by a Dis represent the party voters of the whole district. Such a convention would the present mode of making nomina tions; but even a convention represent ing all the election districts is not th best instrument for doing that work.

Undoubtedly the fairest and safest way of selecting all party candidates in by the direct vote of the people. The Republicans of some of the Western Republicans of some of the Western States are even now seriously considering the expediency of making State nominations in this way, and has come to be known as the Crawford system is growing in favor all over the land. Whatever may be thought of the proposition to apply that system to a State there is no reason to doubt that it would work well in any Congressional or Senatorial district. It would go far to check the corrupt use of money in districts contests. It would at once and forever end deadlocks between candidates. It would leave in the hands of the voters the power they are entiof the voters the power they are enti-tled to wield—the power of selecting their own representatives, and it would strengthen the party by bringing it into closer accord with the people.

This is evidently the time for making

This is evidently the time for making this change in our own State. No longer ago than last August the Republicans of Lycoming county, in their County Convention, resolved with practical unanimity that the present method of making district nominations should be abolished, and that such should be abolished, and that such nominations should hereafter be made by a general vote of the people at the primary elections. At the same time the Convention instructed its conferrees to urge this change upon the representatives of the other counties. Unfortunately, the conferrees then appointed did not follow those instructions; but that is no reason why the Republicans of the other counties should not meet their brethern of Lycoming half way in making this desirable reform. Our own County Committee is, we suppose, soon to be called together to organize for this years work. When that organization is effected, the Committee should, we think, direct its Chairman to appoint a committee to confer with the party organizations of the other counties of both the the Congressional and Senatorial districts with a view to counties of both the the Congressional and Senatorial districts with a view to adopting the system asked for by the Lycoming Republicans. Their are no district nominations to be made this year, and the time is therefore especial ly propitious for making the desired change. It is time to act; let us have effective action by the committee.

The island of Crete, which is the scene of a great deal of excitement just now, is to the south of the mainland of Greece and rightfully belongs to that kingdom. The Cretans have been in rebellion over two hundred years. They have fought many a battle when the Turks were twenty to one. Some times they have routed the enemy, even against such odds, and when they retreated it was in good order to the mountains, only to return and pounce upon the enemy's camp. The Cretans are fine types Greeks, and it is the most fertile of all the famous islands of Greece. Its population is about 275,000. But for local half-breeds and apostates and the continual invention of the powers, the Cretans would long ago have driven the Turks from their island. They are brave and united, and have long desired to resume their place as a part of the Hellas. A writer in the New York Sun says that they are a part of an organization that extends throughout Greece, the island of the Ionian Sea, the Greecian Archipelago. Macedonia and Constantinople. This is a secret society, backed by immense wealth and vast numbers, the object of which is the downfall of the Sultan and the removal of Turkey from the map of the world. At a concerted signal there which is the downfall of the Sultan and the removal of Turkey from the map of the world. At a concerted signal there will be an awful uprising, such as this century has not seen. The time has not yet come to strike, but it is near at hand and if the organization succeeds, Macedonia, Crete. and Constantinople will once more belong to the kingdom of Greece.

The present famine in India is said to be the most severe and extensive ever known in that country. The Engglish have a thoroughly organized relief system; but as Indian finances are at present in an embarrassed condition Parliment will be asked for a national relief grant. Some Americans, arroused by the reports of their missionaries, were arranging to send a ship load of corn to the starving Hindoos but the charitable promoters were promptly informed by British authorities that the contribution would not be necessary. As the mere cost of transporting the corn from New York to Bombay would have been over twenty two cents per bushel, one would think that in any case the method would be scarcely a wise one.

In VIEW of the many attacks on wills because of the alleged incompetency of the persons making them, a Connecticut legislator proposes a law to the effect that every individual who makes a will may deposit it with a legal officer who shall give public notice that a will has been offered, and that all who wish to constitute the text to the content of question the testator's capacity shall have a certain time in which to do so; and if no objection is made, then the will shall not be subject to attack on that ground after death.

SAXONBURG.

And this place is the McKee Home.
Yet, one of the grandest affairs took place in that home on Tuesday evening, Feb. 9, 1897, that ever occurred in Saxonburg. Quietly, one by one, the near relatives and friends of Miss Marie McKee and Mr. Harry McGregor of East Brady gathered in love and happy glee to witness the ties of cupid's coil. The rattling of silks, satin, broadcloth, plumes and the jingling of sleigh-bells and the sweet tones of the piano, aroused the citizens of Saxonburg from the gathering gloom of a dull, murky evening-tide and awakened them from their lethargy and slumber, to realize that ing-tide and awakened them from their lethargy and slumber, to realize that something grand was being transacted in the Saxonburg Hotel. Promptly at 5 o'clock, Rev. G. R. McKinney and Rev. C. Horn were confronted by the bride and groom, whose hearts and hands were united in one. And the sweet odor that came from the dining room told of the grand and delicious meal that stood in readiness for the welcome guests.

OUR LAST SALE

OF ODD STOCK COMMENCES TO-DAY, and this is about the last time we will talk to you about Odds and Ends this Season, as there will be little odd stock left after next week.

We told you last week that a loss sometimes pays, and it has paid us to lose money on odd stock, as the customers that came in for Barrains bouch at the customers that came in for Bargains bought other goods, so it kept business moving along, and we have the money to put into new stock.

In case any of the $3.98 Rocking Chairs are left we will close them out at $3.50, and you can have the $2.95 Parlor Tables for $2.50 provided we have any of them left. If you have been reading our advertisements you know what Rocking Chairs and Tables we refer to. Come and see some other bargains we have: see if they are as good as we say. A few Overstuffed Rocking Chairs at $11.00; old price $25.00. Nothing the matter with these goods, only they are light in color, and if you are one of the many persons that prefer light-colored coverings on parlor goods, here is your opportunity to get a bargain. Large Overstuffed Chairs, not a rocking chair, price was $35.00 you get it for $11.00. Why? Because it is badly soiled; that's why you buy the chair for half what the covering alone is worth. Yes, there is always a reason why we merchants offer such great bargains; at kast there is if the goods are real bargains.

merchants offer such great bargains; at least there is if the goods are real bargains.

Here is a 3-piece Overstuffed Parlor Suit covered with fine silk goods that we sold for $135.00; you can buy it for $75.00, because one of the pieces is slightly damaged and we cant buy a new piece of covering to match it, so we reduce the price. The goods are light in color and you can bardly notice the soil, but it is, there. Do you want the suit? It is a bargain. Have some other Parlor goods left that we will sell you for about one-half. They are odd pieces left out of suits, and the goods are all right. A few sets of Decorated Dinner Sets left at $10.00; same kind we sold for $15.00. Have sold these same two patterns for a year now we intend closing them out and buying new patterns. Now we want to talk Carpets. Had not thought much about them but some of our customers commenced buving last week, so we thought you might be interested. Have a good many pieces of Brussels Carpet left that has 25 to 30 yards in the piece. The 75 cent ones will be sold at 50 cents, and the $5 cent ones for 60 cents. Bring the exact size of your room along and we will soon tell you how much carpet you need. Now here is a chance to save money. Are you interested? If so, come soon.

Have very few lagrain Remnants to sell, but th y go cheap while we have them. Have something that will interest most women.

Have very few Ingrain Remnants to sell, but th y go cheap while we have them. Have something that will interest most women, and that is the finest assortment of New Ingrain Carpets you ever looked at. Come and see them and see if we are correct in our judgment about the styles and colors of our Ingrain Carpet.

Now, we do considerable newspaper talking, and make reductions that we cont blame you for thinking rather large, and in fact we would doubt the truthlessness of the above statement if we would read them ourselves, provided some people would make them; but we invite you to come and see for yourself, no matter if you don't want to buy. It will pay you to investigate, and you will then know if you wish to do husiness with us in the future. Remember it is never safe to buy goods from a firm that misrepresents in the newspaper advertisement.

Your Home FURNISHED COMPLETE.
