Liver Ills of the Mine.

Take biliousness, dyspepsia, headache, constipation, your stomach indigestion are promptly cured by Hood's Pills. They do their work easily and thoroughly.

After the business of transferring the mine to his new owner was completed, John Kenyon went to the telegraph office and sent a short cable message to Wentworth.

CHAPTER XXVI. After the business of transferring the mine to his new owner was completed, John Kenyon went to the telegraph office and sent a short cable message to Wentworth.

CHAPTER XXVII. "It was sent to me by George Wentworth," said he.

"Quite so, but now I want to know what the Wentworth letter was about."

"You will have a chance of finding that out when you go to England by asking him."

"I can't tell you," said he.

"You mean by that, of course, that you don't know?"

"I don't know," said he.

"Well, it isn't a common vice—speaking the truth. You must forget a little sooner."

"I thought I should be a little more particular in believing that anybody can speak the truth."

"Have you not? Well, you are a singular man. It seems to me that a person who speaks the truth is a rare bird."

"I don't know," said he.

PERSONAL AND LITERARY.

Mr. Benedict is not the only man who wants to be let alone by a "sensational press." There are others—several of them.

Queen Victoria's coronation ring is never out of her sight and is worn by her every evening.

Mr. Curtis says that there are only three handsome men in the Senate—Cameron, McMillan and Wetmore.
