FIRES.

Wm. Humphrey and Son's two bit stores in Homestead were destroyed by fire, Tuesday afternoon.

The fire originated from a heater in the cellar and spread to the oil barrels, before being discovered. The firm carried one of the largest stocks in the county—from $25,000 to $30,000, and nearly everything was lost. The insurance aggregates but $2,000.

The second story of one of the stores was occupied by the Odd Fellows. Their loss is about $1,000.

Alonso Henshaw's fine residence adjoining was also destroyed, the loss being about $3,000.

Will Shook's house on the Bert Young place in Butler twp., along the 3 degree road, was destroyed by fire, Tuesday afternoon.

The house took fire from the fine, and the whole second story was burning before the fire was noticed. They lost everything, and had no insurance.

The Argonauts. The above named "Argonauts," is the one given to themselves by that brave band of men from Butler and adjoining twps. who are searching for gold.

They are sometimes called the Forty-niners, and are now in the mountains of California, first going by boat from Pittsburgh to St. Louis, Missouri, and from there to California.

Everything passed off in "apple-pie order" at a young people's social at the U. P. Church, Monday evening.

The Pittsburg Daily News was a year old Tuesday, and it is the best and brightest evening paper published in Pittsburg.

A three-story brick hotel building will be built this summer on the Shirley lot on Centre avenue, where the recently burned Reed House stood.

It is said that the P. & B. L. E. R. R. has contracted with the Butler Water Co. to supply one engine with water every half hour.

We direct the attention of chicken fanciers and farmers to the fact that Harrington & Co., Warsaw, N. Y., in this issue, they are breeders of pure chickens, ducks and Belgian Hares.

The Pittsburg Dispatch of last Sunday contained twelve hundred advertisements, and as business men don't advertise for fun, this is unmistakable evidence of reviving business activity, which means—Prosperity.

The miners of the Turner mine near Hilliards went to work on the 10th inst, at 33 cents per ton—run of bank. The Rople mine was flooded last week. Misner & Spear's miners are said to have gone to work in same rate.

The Argonauts or "Forty-niners" held their 4th anniversary and banquet at Pittsburg, Monday night. There were 19 members present, whose aggregate age was 170 years, an average of 73 years. Henry Heinenman of Butler was one of the number.

Co. H of the old 13th—the first company that left Butler (April 23, 1861) and which was organized on the 19th; will hold a reunion in Butler on April 20th—the 29th anniversary of its organization. A program is now being prepared, which will appear soon.

Since "plate-matter" came in vogue we have not been putting much general reading matter in type; but the story entitled "Life's Secret," which appeared in Little's Living Age, a week before last, is so remarkable that we reproduce part of it this week, and will finish it next.

Unless newspaper writers, printers and proof readers are very careful they mix proper names up woefully. For instance, one of the Kittingan weeklies of last week announced that M. L. Morrow of Bruin, Butler county and Sylvia Boyle of Parks twp., Butler county, had taken a marriage license, and another paper had it M. L. Morrison, Bruin, Butler county and Salina Boyle, Parker twp., Butler county. Which is it?

Miss Katherine Oliver will read selections from Scottish Authors, Friday evening in Y. M. C. A. Rooms. The well known ability of this impersonator of Scotch character should bespeak for her a royal reception, and she will have many entertainments offered them, but rarely a real literary treat as this will be. We hope all lovers of Scottish lore will come and enjoy it. Tickets can be secured at C. N. Boyd's, Redick & Grohman's and Anderson's drug store, Springdale.

At the meeting of Council, Tuesday evening, the Secretary was directed to advertise for bids for the paving of north McKean street, west of Washington St., and also for south McKean St., if the property owners will release all claims for damages. The people of West Cunningham and East Wayne also want to pave, and the solicitor was directed to prepare the ordinances, if these have many entertainments offered them, but rarely a real literary treat as this will be. We hope all lovers of Scottish lore will come and enjoy it. Tickets can be secured at C. N. Boyd's, Redick & Grohman's and Anderson's drug store, Springdale.

Geo. Walter & Sons' flour is made for people that want the very best. It is three grades, "White Rose," "Iona Patent" and "Sterling." Leading grocers carry them.

Read your answer in the Stars. USE GEORGE WALTER & SON'S FLOURS. They are choice. Try a sack and you will use no other.

White Rose and Iona Patent are both winter wheat flour. The White Rose is a standard flour, and the Iona is a fancy patent. Then for those who prefer a spring wheat flour we can and do recommend our Sterling. It is a fancy Spring Patent made from No. 1 hard spring wheat, which we make expressly for our trade by one of the best mills in the northwest.

Every sack of our flour is warranted choice and guaranteed pure. Our determination is to give you a PURE, HONEST, flour at lowest possible price. This we can and do guarantee satisfaction money refunded.

Our Corn Meal, well, it is just like grains of gold. Those who have used it will tell you a choice article it is. Try it.

For our feed—Corn Chop, Oats Corn Chop, Wheat Chop, Broom Corn, Oats Hay, etc. We sell if for you to just COMPARE them with the goods offered by others. And if you are not quite satisfied you will buy from us. We claim that our feed is better than any offered in town, and if you will compare our feed with any other, we carry a line of oats similar to those offered by others, and we will then at our own price. But then the oats we recommend is our extra choice, re-cleaned, Oats. Others may tell you that theirs is just as good, but you compare them, and your judgment will bear out our claim, and that we say of our oats will also apply to our hay. Comparison is all we ask in goods and prices. Those who will compare our goods with any other, we will then at our own price. But then the oats we recommend is our extra choice, re-cleaned, Oats.
