-Two amateur Dick Turpin's attacked Loyal McJunkin at the corner of fain and W. Pearl last Thursday night. Loyal went to the mail box about 11 P. M. and put in a letter, and as he turned to start back home, a tall fellow and a short fellow covered him with their pistols and demanded his valuables. One of them grabbed his watch, and he snatched it back, and parleyed with them till they lost their nerve, and let him pass on. Monday evening a rough looking fellow pointed a pistol at Howard Weisenstein, at corner of E. Dia-mond and McKean, and demanded money, but Weisenstein said he didn't have any, and passed on.

letters. I shouldn't be suprised if there wouldn't be so much as a reference to the most charming man in the world." The girl was true to her word. Her first letter home started out just like any ordinary letter home. It was sprightly, but not a bit sentimental: properly cheerful but never a suggest-ion of spooniness. As she had ann ounc-ed the letter didn't even so much as refer to the most charming man in the world Not the letter proper, that is to say. As with all regulated epistles emanating from a women there was, however a postscript, and when it came to this the girl couldn't help putting in 'P.S.—Tom is a very nice gentleman."

A LITTLE TALK.

The season has been a backward one on account of the wet weather, yet our business has been greater than ever-

WHY IS THIS?

It is easily accounted for, our theory has always been that if people are treated fairly and honestly they will appreciate it-and for fifteen years we have pursued

Department and those having claims against said estate can present them properly authenticated for settlement to LEVI BOYRE, Administrator. Middle Lancaster, P. O. E. MCIUNKIN, Atty. HIS policy— Never Misrepresent, nor try to get Rich off one Customer, And people have found this out and prefer to deal where they know they get the worth of their money—

Neighbor!

The question to ask yourself when you think of buying a buggy or harness is-does the dealer know what he is selling-will he sell an article for just what it is and at the lowest possible price, also is his knowledge of the business sufficient that I may rely on it. Then patronize such a firm-if after all these years our reputation is not such as to meet all these exactions in your mind, then go elsewhere-bear in mind that buggies are cheaper now than ever in the history of our country, and the season is here when you need one.

CALL AND SEE US.

And see if we cannot save you money-if not do not deal, certainly this is fair. We never had as fine a stock of buggies, surries and harness as we have now, and remember we are the largest Wholesale and Retail House in our line in the state. Thanking you for past favors we remain
