FOR JURY COMMISSIONER. A. O. EBERHART.

HARRISBURG.

On Friday last Gov. Hastings signed two altered reform bills passed by the Legislature. All that is required is the signature of the voter to a general formula authorizing someone to pay his taxes. The other bill is supposed to prohibit the payment of money to any person by the State.

Regulating the remuneration of police men and constables, and prohibiting them from charging or accepting any fee or other compensation in addition to their salary, except as a reward, and as mileage for traveling expenses. Authorizing payment into the Orphans' court of the money due on flowers, etc., where the persons to whom they are payable cannot be found.

To amend the act of 1885 relating to dower and partition, so as to authorize decrees of sales on petitions for partition.

Relating to appeals from justices of the peace and aldermen. Providing for the incorporation of associations for receiving and holding property real or personal, of unincorporated religious, benevolent, educational and missionary societies and associations, and executing trusts therefor.

Making the proceedings of the department of Pennsylvania, Grand jury of the Republic, a part of the public records of the State.

To provide for a more equitable method of distributing the public school appropriation.

To prohibit the payment of any occupation or poll tax of any selector by any person other than the selector, and to prohibit the assessments of any demands for contributions from the officers and employees of the State or county.

Creating a state bureau of mining in connection with the department of internal affairs.

Authorizing the transfer of wholesale or retail liquor license from one person to another, and from one place to another.

Taking banks and trust companies. Authorizing county commissioners to transfer and cover into the general fund of counties any money now placed to the credit of any city, borough or township for taxes uncollected during a period of 10 years.

Providing for the weighing of coal as it comes from the miners, and before screening.

The Governor is not taking to the woods under the attacks of some newspapers who criticize the bill of $50,000 for fitting up Grace church.

BEHIND ANOTHER DOT. In the sea, with an area of fifteen square miles, yet England spends over $500,000 a year on its military establishment and more for its naval facilities.

REMOVAL OF THE SNYDER FAMILY. MISSISS EDITIONS—A picnic and reunion of the Snyder family, together with friends and neighbors, was held July 18, 1897, on the farm in Brady township originally settled by Commodore Snyder.

THE HARMONY STORIES. The Harmony stories are ridiculous, and their purpose is to scare the Governor with the hope that he will weaken in his determination to dispose of legislation honestly and fearlessly.

WASHINGTON NOTES.

On Saturday it was reported that the Senate conference had yielded to the rate of one-eighth differential on refined sugar and had receded from the provision for a discount on jaggedy and other low-grade sugars.

The Conference Report on the tariff bill was presented in the House by Chairman Dingley last Monday noon, debated until nearly midnight, and passed by a vote of 195 to 118.

The people of the Governor is most anxious to hear from his Chief Clerks, Jere Rex and E. W. Smiley, but they have not replied. Chairman Seyfert said in defense of himself and the Penitentiary Committee.

"I was asked to introduce the expense bill for $14,000, by the House. I had through the Senate by senators Vaughan and Heller. The accounts for each member were not prepared by me. My recollection is that this was done by Clerk Etta and the Sergeant-at-Arms.

When the bill came to the House, I had it cut down to $7,000, and each individual account was reduced. An allowance of $1,400 was made for stenographer. His bill is $2400, quite a difference. He prepared six copies of 122 pages, and it is not hard to get at the cost of the stenography."

The principals of the normal schools asked a hearing and consent to a reduction of $5,000 apiece for the two years on the item of maintenance. This will make $65,000 of a cut for all. Some of the principals were inclined to be obstreperous, even after Gov. Hastings warned them that they would be forced to veto the whole item for maintenance.

Judge John M. Greer and Representative James N. Moore, of Butler, accompanied Principal Malby, of the Slippery Rock Normal School. It was the good sense of Moore that had better taken them for they could get nothing.

Chief Clerks Jere Rex and E. W. Smiley have three days more in which to go over the expense accounts for the House and Senate. The limit fixed by the Governor for itemized statements is Thursday.

Governor Hastings will not be able to visit the Second Brigade camp at Connetquot. This will be a sore disappointment to the boys, who have been severely tried by the wet weather.

The Daily and Food Department is to be reorganized by August 15. The force of inspectors will be reduced from eight to five. Special Agent Frank N. Moore who operated in the West, will resign, and be succeeded by James Terry, who, like Moore, is from Bradford Co.

Quay Tries to Force Governor Hastings to Act, and Fails.

A TRUE STORY OF THE EPISODE.

The Senator Frightened and Declares Himself For Resignation. His Senatorial Legislature Still Plunges Him. What Frank Willing Leach Says of the Outlook.

Harrisburg, July 20.—Political sensation continues to multiply, and Senator Quay's position is becoming more and more precarious. The new ward leader, the open break between Governor Hastings and Quay is the greatest.

There has been considerable talk about Quay's resignation. The senator is reported to be in a state of mind that he would like to resign, but he is not yet ready to do so.

The school appropriation. Perhaps the county members didn't see a home run this week in the house. For two years past, Senator Walter Merrick of Troy county, has given his best energies to solving the question how to secure a more just and equitable distribution of the State appropriation to the common schools.

Quay and Penrose met the governor in the executive chamber, with nobody present but the chief clerk. The senator told them that he would make no promises as to what he would do. Then Quay opened his mouth and said that he would make no promises.

NEIGHBORHOOD NOTES.

Quay's Legislature.

"It must be a very nice thing that was Mr. Quay's legislature. It was elected to do his bidding, and it did. It elected his candidate to the State Senate, and his selections for speaker of the house and president pro tempore of the house were affirmed by the committees of the two houses were controlled by Quay man.

"The legislature is everywhere denounced for its profligacy, imbecility and venality. The people are indignant at the grades of Governor Hastings, who, with his vetoes, has intervened between the legislature and the people on the other. Except for the vigorous courage and independence of our Governor, the taxpayers of Pennsylvania would be in a sad plight today.

"A wealthy citizen of New Castle recently discovered long scratches running the entire length of his manogany staircase. As he had no children he was considerably puzzled, but on investigation the mystery was cleared by the hired girl confessing that the grooves were cut by the buckle of her belt while using the banister as a tologogon slide.

"Five thousand people attended the Maconees picnic at Idlewild on last Thursday. Squirts in western Mercer county are eating up the wheat, and the farmers have appealed to the State auditor to allow them to destroy the animals out of season.

"Disappointment is felt at Lily Dale because Col. Ingraham of India, the renowned Buddhist, will try to be of hand and fill the place of the great agnostic, who some pious folks call Injurious. Let's hope for Buddha's sake that Dhar will get there and fill the bill.

"After a severe attack of typhoid fever I was taken with a terrible scrofula him. I had large sores on my limbs, from which I suffered terribly. All treatment seemed to make me worse. I read what Hood's Sarsaparilla had done for others and began taking it. The sores began to heal and I continued with Hood's until cured." MISS ALLIE SEIFFERT, 736 West Philadelphia St., York, Penn.

"The next Republican State Convention, called to meet in Harrisburg, August 26th—will be composed of 282 delegates—53 more than the last one.
