LOCAL AND GENERAL,

I love to hear the music
Of the mower on the lawn,
Awaking sleepy echoes
At the first faint blush of dawn.
But dearly as I love it,
If I ever had to shove it,
The reses would grow forever.

The grass would grow forever.

time the tamper of some of the members was hotter. It came about this way—the Council advertised for bids for lighting, and an electric plant, and two men were present with bids; but a motion to require bonds before bids were opened carried by a vote of 7 to 6. This was not in the advertisement, and as it would set the matter back a month and be an injustice to the bidders present some hot words passed about it and Will Murrin impeached the vote of one member of Council as an interested party. Then the matter was reconsidered and the bids were opened and read and discussed, and referred to the Light Committee for tabulation.

No other Summer outing appeals so strongly to the people of Western Pennsylvania as the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's popular excursions to the seacoast of New Jersey. For years they have been looked forward to as the holistic strong the search of the day event of each forward to as the hom-day event of each Summer. The secret of their great popularity is the phenom-enally low rate and the high charac-ter of the service. The limit of twelve days just fits the time set apart for the average vacation, and the dates of the accursions are most conveniently accursions. There is also the widest field for choice in the selection of a resor Atlantic City, Cape May, Sea Isle City and Ocean City, are the choicest of the Atlantic coast resorts, and any one them may be visited under these The dates of the excursions are Jul 29, and Angust 12 and 21.
