It is the greatest consumption approaches its victim step by step. First there is a little "out of sorts" feeling, the digestion isn't just right, the appetite falls off, the liver is inactive, the assimilation of the living elements of the food is imperfect, the blood gets impure and the body is improperly nourished. The condition gets worse and worse. The heart through the arterial system is pumping thin, poisonous blood into every organ of the body. The organs that are inherently weakest break down first. Ordinarily the lungs, as the last straw that breaks the camel's back comes a cold, however slight. This, with the accompanying cough, completes the work and an invasion of the germs of consumption follows. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures 98 per cent. of all cases of consumption. It corrects the conditions that lead up to it. It is the greatest blood-maker and flesh-builder known.

K. C. McNeil, Esq., of Kempville, Princess Anne Co., Va., writes: "When I commenced taking your 'Discovery' I was very weak, not able to do the least work, but most of the time was laid up. I was all run-down, very weak, my head was dizzy, and I was extremely despondent. The first bottle I had taken seemed to do much good, but I had faith in it and continued to use it until I had taken seven bottles, and now do not look nor feel like the same man I was once. I feel like a new man, and I say, 'well, last year this time I would not have thought I was an entirely cured of a disease which had been so long ailing me.' 'Discovery' would have resulted in my death."

It was at the office of Charles City cross roads that Major McCully lost his right arm. The soldier having been shot by a rifle ball.

One of the highest tributes ever paid to Major McCully was shortly after the close of the war, Colonel E. B. Harvey, under whom McCully served, sent him a letter in which he was specially noted for his firmness and determination during the battle of Gettysburg.

Major McCully was one of the best and most trustworthy and reliable men in his regiment. His devotion and fidelity to the cause of his country were early promotion from a private to a captain.
