

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NOTE: All advertisers intending to make changes in their ads. should notify us of their intention to do so, not later than Monday morning.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

P. Bessemer & L. E.

Trains leave Butler, (train time) at 9:40 A. M. and 5 P. M. (trains arrive at 9:35 A. M. and 4:30 P. M.)

Part of the new Stein block is four stories high.

No invention ever caused so much talk as the telephone.

Butler has 2600 school children and needs more school rooms.

The Second Presbyterian Sunday School started off with 170 scholars.

The burning woods to the north and west of us enveloped our town in smoke.

A spider web is about fifty per cent stronger than a thread of steel of equal thickness.

Workmen braced up the West St. bridge last Saturday and it is fit for travel again.

After a rat killing contest in Greene county last week over 10,000 rat tails were counted.

A new style "friction-gear" locomotive is now built that can do a mile in 30 seconds.

They are hauling brick for the S. S. Toboggan slide this week. It will make a pretty strid.

Walker ave. is being improved by the addition of gravel on the streets, and cinder in the gutters.

While the mercury stood at 85 in the shade in Butler, Friday, out in Idaho they were having a snow storm.

Don't burn your leaves in the streets and alleys, contrary to the Borough Ordinances to do so.

Everybody went hunting last Friday, and though lots of squirrels were secured, the pheasants were scarce.

The mail for Enclid, Centerville, Harrisville, etc., now leaves Butler at 9:40. No mail goes north on the 5:00 train.

A Slipperyrock twp. farmer has a hundred bushels of clover seed, and throughout the county the farmers will average twenty bushels each.

G. B. Reed Post, 105, G. A. R. will nominate officers for the ensuing year on Friday night, Nov. 5. All members invited to be present.

The early and late trains on the "Bessie" have been taken off. The trains leave at 9:40 A. M. and 5:30 P. M. and arrive at 9:55 A. M. and 5:45 P. M.

The first coal train over the new part of the P. B. & L. E. went through town on its way north yesterday morning. It was made up of some 20 cars of coal.

An exchange contains a card of thanks from the editor for a pitcher of buttermilk, which some kind hearted subscriber who owes $10 on his subscription gave him.

Last week Butler had four fire alarms sounded, while during the entire previous portion of the year, if we remember correctly, only seven alarms were sounded.

There will be a "Deestrick Skel" at the Opera House this evening—all home talent and for the benefit of the public library. It will be great fun and the "disturbance" will begin at 8 o'clock. Prices 35 cents.

The natives in India fall down and worship the banyan. In this country there is a number who in full down and worship the machine, at least the language they use cannot be construed into worship.

A wife remarked to her husband that she couldn't see how a man liked to go hunting when he didn't shoot anything. The husband retorted that it was probably for the same reason that he went to the office so often and didn't say anything.

A sample of Bohemian life has been on exhibition on our streets this week. Some months ago two men built a car in Mercer, and fitted it up with a stove, corn-popper, bottles, etc., and in this they eat and sleep, and make popcorn and waffles. They traveled through the northern part of the state and are now in Butler.

Disastrous forest fires are reported from nearly all the wooded districts of this and neighboring states. There never was a time when a good rain would bring more relief than it can now. Small fires have started in several places in Butler county, but they were not enough woods any place to let the damage amount to much.

When the big Bessie engine went over the turn table and down the creek bank, last week, it toppled over. A temporary track was built along the creek and the engine lifted and placed upon it by immense jacks, then a track was built up the hill to the turn table, a heavy cable was attached to the run away engine and also to some others on the main track and the runaway was hauled up the hill to the turn table. It was a big job, and kept a score of men working day and night for two days.

The Wrought Iron Range Co. of St. Louis, makes as good a range as anybody could wish for. It is neat, convenient, complete, fuel-saving and very durable. The agent of the Company, Mr. Smitten, and his assistants, have been canvassing Butler County for the past six weeks, and in that time have placed six car-loads of the ranges in this county. The range is sold only on the wagon, and if you want to own your own range, you will have to buy in a month or so, and will not be back for four years.

The Carnegie Co. has leased the Buchanan, Wiley and Covert farms near Wick, a town, and have from 50 to 100 men at work opening a limestone quarry and building a switch. The limestone will be shipped to the iron mills, which consume several hundred tons daily. We do not know what the farms are to get for their stone, but are told that the land owners in Winfield twp. are getting a cent a ton. Messrs Adams, of Butler, and Spooner, of Erie, now own the old Andrews quarry, near Wick, but are not operating it.

LEGAL NOTES.

Lewis R. Meehling an old soldier, was granted a pension for services rendered during the late war.

Margaret E. Gerlach has petitioned for divorce from Jacob H. Gerlach.

The will of Robert P. Anderson, of Allegheny twp., was probated, no letters.

E. H. Negley was appointed Election Inspector of the 3rd Ward, Butler, vice J. M. Wick, deceased.

Letters of administration were granted to Thos. A. Parks, on estate of C. A. Parks, deceased, of Allegheny twp.

The P. B. & L. E. R. R. Co. filed an indemnity bond for $1000 in favor of Mrs. Matthew Kirk, et al.

Letters of administration on the estate of Mary J. Dixon, late of West Virginia, were granted to James Dixon.

The will of Henry Royle, of Hilliards, was probated and letters granted to Eliza Royle and John C. Royle.

At the suit of Peter Kirk, a captain in the 2nd Regt. of the 1st Div. of the 1st Army, vs. Thos. B. Metlin. The plaintiff claims $1000 damages.

The Supreme Court has affirmed the verdict rendered in the case of the Standard Plate Glass Co. versus the Butler Water Co.

Mable Cleveland pled guilty to fornication yesterday, and was released on her own recognizance to appear at Dec. Term for sentence.

On Saturday John Hamnerly was arrested on charges of receiving stolen goods and larceny preferred against him by D. Maloney.

A special term of Common Pleas Court will be held, beginning Monday, Nov. 22. A list of forty-eight cases will be prepared.

Thomas Jefferson, colored, was put in jail, Thursday, on a charge of burglary, preferred by George W. Mars, He is from Allegheny City.

The jury in the case of Luetzger, the Chicago sausage maker, was out all night (Thursday) night, and on Friday morning the jury returned and cannot agree.

Harry Brackney was arrested by Detective Allen and taken to Pittsburgh, Thursday, on a charge of larceny, preferred by a Bakerstown man. Harry was arrested on same charge some time ago at Allegheny, near the station at Allison Park and escaped.

Samuel McKean is much wanted in Venango twp. He is accused of several thefts of live stock and also for forgery. Informations have been made against him, but he cannot be found. He is claimed by the state of Maryland, from High Collins, traded it for a horse, then tried to sell the horse to Collins. A lot of plunder found in a coal bank is supposed to have been stolen by him.

John M. Shira, of Parker twp., and Ev. Huzlet, of Sarvers, went on to Chicago, Wednesday, as delegates to the Presbyterian Synod.

Will Moorhead, a Butler boy located in Tarentum, was home on a short visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. H. A. Moorhead, during the past week. The fire seemed to originate in the saw dust bin.

Matthew Bippus, of Oakland twp., and his wife, Mrs. C. W. Bippus, returned on Saturday from a hunting trip to Clarion Co. They captured a pair of black squirrels, and 10 grey squirrels, in one day.

Samuel Walker, has leaped into football fame during the past two weeks at the college of the University of Pennsylvania, where he is playing as a forward.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian Church, will give a ball social in the lecture room of the church, Tuesday, the 28th.

The new P. B. & L. E. Church in Zalesnope was dedicated last Sunday, Rev. M. Naugher, of Allegheny, preaching the sermon. The new church is of brick and cost $10,000.

On Thursday and Friday evening, Nov. 25-26, Rev. Howard Wilson will give two illustrated lectures in the U. P. Church in Butler, on the subject of "Missions."

India Contribution. A letter dated Sept. 3, 1897, was received last week by J. M. Galbreath, Esq., from Miss Emma D. Anderson, of the American Mission at Gurdaspur, North India, acknowledging the receipt of two drafts for $42. 15c and $21. 00, respectively, contributed by the citizens of Butler.

We take this method of returning our sincere thanks to our neighbors who saved our household goods from our burning on the night of the 13th; and for their further kindness to our family since the fire.

MR. AND MRS. T. L. DONALDSON, Cooperstown, Pa.

Humidity. T. M. Porter, of Pittsburgh, Secretary of the West Penna. Humane Society, writes this people regarding the work of the society, and at a meeting in Burgess Park, Butler, that afternoon steps were taken toward the organization of a branch society here. The agents of the Society in this town are J. G. Skilman and Capt. Flanagan, quite a number of cases of cruelty to animals and children have been reported; and the hope is that they should have an organization to sustain them in their work.

The above was put in type, Messrs Couler and McKee have secured the use of the Court room from the Commissioners for Tuesday evening, when Mr. Porter will again be here, and will endeavor to create a general interest in the cause and effect an organization for that purpose.

An Engineering Feat. The feat of replacing an iron bridge with a steel one, in a distance of 29 feet deep with one of the same dimensions of steel was accomplished in Philadelphia, last Saturday, in 2 minutes and 39 seconds. In the space of time nearly 7,000 tons of iron and steel were moved a distance of 29 feet. The work was done by engineering was accomplished at the connecting railroad bridge over the Schuylkill, just above Girard avenue.

FOR SALE. A small farm at Railroad Station, about 40 acres, could be surveyed and sold in lots, No. 100, and other outbuildings. Inquire at this office.

Low Prices in Musical Goods. Some special prices at Grieb & Lamb's illustrative sale now going on.

Books Notices. Beginning with November 1, 1897, Harper's Round Table will be published as an illustrated monthly magazine for youth, and will be sold for 10 cents a copy. $1.00 a year, instead of $2.00 a year, as the case when the paper was issued weekly. It will be greatly enlarged, and in addition to three long serials for the coming year, it will contain many short stories in each number, besides a selection of articles on travel, sport, adventure, etc. There will also be money prizes for competitors in short stories, amateur photography and comic sketches. The cost of the magazine with the CITIZEN at $1.90 cash in advance.

PERSONAL.

Will Fisher is living on a lease near Renfrew.

Oliver Thompson has moved to East Clay street.

M. B. Dittmer of Herman was in town, Tuesday.

H. C. Welsh of Penn twp., was in town last Thursday.

Mrs. Dr. Abernathy of Centerville went West last week.

Ernest Doddow of Chicago is his new home on N. McKean St.

Mrs. Crawford, of Allegheny twp., and Mrs. Patterson of Penn twp., were thrown from their buggy Tuesday, and Mrs. Martin is reported to have been seriously injured.

John E. Forsyth had one of his feet badly crushed by a telephone pole slipping over it while being raised, about two weeks ago, but is able to travel about again.

Ed Brackley, the liverman, had a fit while examining the hay in A. McCandless' yard, Friday night, and fell first down through the hay-hole to the floor below. He was badly cut about the head and eye, and has been since. A few months ago he fell from a telegraph pole on the Diamond.

Secy Carruthers of the Y. M. C. A., and Dr. H. Morgan, called on Saturday morning on their wheels, intending to make the run to New Brighton, but going to the depot at Centerville, Pa., where they were met by Mr. Carruthers, who had control of the wheel, could not make the run, and he was thrown from the hay-hole, and so dazed that he could not tell where they were, or where they were going. They rode on to Harmony, took the train home, and next day Mr. C. was at night again.

T. L. Donaldson's home in Cooperstown was burned a few days ago.

A forest-fire on the Hindman tract in Washington twp. has destroyed considerable timber.

The bath-room of the Orphan's Home was discovered to be burning, Tuesday night, but the fire was quickly extinguished by some fire-extinguishers.

The basement of Smith's Restaurant on S. Main street, was set on fire by the carelessness of a waiter, and the fire was extinguished before any great damage was done.

The boiler house of Purdy mill was discovered to be burning Tuesday night, about 2 o'clock by the watchman, who gave the alarm, and turned on the water, and the fire was quickly extinguished. The fire seemed to originate in the saw dust bin.

About 11 o'clock last night the house occupied by the Schaffner family, the base ball manager, was discovered to be on fire, but the fire was extinguished before any great damage was done.

Isaac Robb, Esq., of Oakland twp., has been named by the Circuit and District Courts, to be the "Whig" for fifty years. He is now in his 85th year.

Matthew Bippus, of Oakland twp., and his wife, Mrs. C. W. Bippus, returned on Saturday from a hunting trip to Clarion Co. They captured a pair of black squirrels, and 10 grey squirrels, in one day.

Samuel Walker, has leaped into football fame during the past two weeks at the college of the University of Pennsylvania, where he is playing as a forward.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian Church, will give a ball social in the lecture room of the church, Tuesday, the 28th.

The new P. B. & L. E. Church in Zalesnope was dedicated last Sunday, Rev. M. Naugher, of Allegheny, preaching the sermon. The new church is of brick and cost $10,000.

On Thursday and Friday evening, Nov. 25-26, Rev. Howard Wilson will give two illustrated lectures in the U. P. Church in Butler, on the subject of "Missions."

India Contribution. A letter dated Sept. 3, 1897, was received last week by J. M. Galbreath, Esq., from Miss Emma D. Anderson, of the American Mission at Gurdaspur, North India, acknowledging the receipt of two drafts for $42. 15c and $21. 00, respectively, contributed by the citizens of Butler.

We take this method of returning our sincere thanks to our neighbors who saved our household goods from our burning on the night of the 13th; and for their further kindness to our family since the fire.

MR. AND MRS. T. L. DONALDSON, Cooperstown, Pa.

Humidity. T. M. Porter, of Pittsburgh, Secretary of the West Penna. Humane Society, writes this people regarding the work of the society, and at a meeting in Burgess Park, Butler, that afternoon steps were taken toward the organization of a branch society here. The agents of the Society in this town are J. G. Skilman and Capt. Flanagan, quite a number of cases of cruelty to animals and children have been reported; and the hope is that they should have an organization to sustain them in their work.

The above was put in type, Messrs Couler and McKee have secured the use of the Court room from the Commissioners for Tuesday evening, when Mr. Porter will again be here, and will endeavor to create a general interest in the cause and effect an organization for that purpose.

An Engineering Feat. The feat of replacing an iron bridge with a steel one, in a distance of 29 feet deep with one of the same dimensions of steel was accomplished in Philadelphia, last Saturday, in 2 minutes and 39 seconds. In the space of time nearly 7,000 tons of iron and steel were moved a distance of 29 feet. The work was done by engineering was accomplished at the connecting railroad bridge over the Schuylkill, just above Girard avenue.

FOR SALE. A small farm at Railroad Station, about 40 acres, could be surveyed and sold in lots, No. 100, and other outbuildings. Inquire at this office.

Low Prices in Musical Goods. Some special prices at Grieb & Lamb's illustrative sale now going on.

Books Notices. Beginning with November 1, 1897, Harper's Round Table will be published as an illustrated monthly magazine for youth, and will be sold for 10 cents a copy. $1.00 a year, instead of $2.00 a year, as the case when the paper was issued weekly. It will be greatly enlarged, and in addition to three long serials for the coming year, it will contain many short stories in each number, besides a selection of articles on travel, sport, adventure, etc. There will also be money prizes for competitors in short stories, amateur photography and comic sketches. The cost of the magazine with the CITIZEN at $1.90 cash in advance.

ACCIDENTS.

J. B. Murphy, the West End bee man, is carrying a badly burned hand.

Geo. Brown, of Mercer St., was thrown from his bike, near Komers' store, Saturday, and had his breast bone fractured.

Chas. Gatz, a brakeman on the P. & W., struck his head against a bridge last Saturday, while his train was running, and was taken to the Allegheny General Hospital.

Capt James Bryan and Cook Wm. Patterson, of the steamboat John B. Ford, were on duty on the Allegheny river, near Charleroi, Monday evening.

Mr. John Martin of E. Penn twp., and Mrs. Patterson of Penn twp., were thrown from their buggy Tuesday, and Mrs. Martin is reported to have been seriously injured.

John E. Forsyth had one of his feet badly crushed by a telephone pole slipping over it while being raised, about two weeks ago, but is able to travel about again.

Ed Brackley, the liverman, had a fit while examining the hay in A. McCandless' yard, Friday night, and fell first down through the hay-hole to the floor below. He was badly cut about the head and eye, and has been since. A few months ago he fell from a telegraph pole on the Diamond.

Secy Carruthers of the Y. M. C. A., and Dr. H. Morgan, called on Saturday morning on their wheels, intending to make the run to New Brighton, but going to the depot at Centerville, Pa., where they were met by Mr. Carruthers, who had control of the wheel, could not make the run, and he was thrown from the hay-hole, and so dazed that he could not tell where they were, or where they were going. They rode on to Harmony, took the train home, and next day Mr. C. was at night again.

T. L. Donaldson's home in Cooperstown was burned a few days ago.

A forest-fire on the Hindman tract in Washington twp. has destroyed considerable timber.

The bath-room of the Orphan's Home was discovered to be burning, Tuesday night, but the fire was quickly extinguished by some fire-extinguishers.

The basement of Smith's Restaurant on S. Main street, was set on fire by the carelessness of a waiter, and the fire was extinguished before any great damage was done.

The boiler house of Purdy mill was discovered to be burning Tuesday night, about 2 o'clock by the watchman, who gave the alarm, and turned on the water, and the fire was quickly extinguished. The fire seemed to originate in the saw dust bin.

About 11 o'clock last night the house occupied by the Schaffner family, the base ball manager, was discovered to be on fire, but the fire was extinguished before any great damage was done.

Isaac Robb, Esq., of Oakland twp., has been named by the Circuit and District Courts, to be the "Whig" for fifty years. He is now in his 85th year.

Matthew Bippus, of Oakland twp., and his wife, Mrs. C. W. Bippus, returned on Saturday from a hunting trip to Clarion Co. They captured a pair of black squirrels, and 10 grey squirrels, in one day.

Samuel Walker, has leaped into football fame during the past two weeks at the college of the University of Pennsylvania, where he is playing as a forward.

The Young Ladies' Missionary Society, of the Presbyterian Church, will give a ball social in the lecture room of the church, Tuesday, the 28th.

The new P. B. & L. E. Church in Zalesnope was dedicated last Sunday, Rev. M. Naugher, of Allegheny, preaching the sermon. The new church is of brick and cost $10,000.

On Thursday and Friday evening, Nov. 25-26, Rev. Howard Wilson will give two illustrated lectures in the U. P. Church in Butler, on the subject of "Missions."

India Contribution. A letter dated Sept. 3, 1897, was received last week by J. M. Galbreath, Esq., from Miss Emma D. Anderson, of the American Mission at Gurdaspur, North India, acknowledging the receipt of two drafts for $42. 15c and $21. 00, respectively, contributed by the citizens of Butler.

We take this method of returning our sincere thanks to our neighbors who saved our household goods from our burning on the night of the 13th; and for their further kindness to our family since the fire.

MR. AND MRS. T. L. DONALDSON, Cooperstown, Pa.

Humidity. T. M. Porter, of Pittsburgh, Secretary of the West Penna. Humane Society, writes this people regarding the work of the society, and at a meeting in Burgess Park, Butler, that afternoon steps were taken toward the organization of a branch society here. The agents of the Society in this town are J. G. Skilman and Capt. Flanagan, quite a number of cases of cruelty to animals and children have been reported; and the hope is that they should have an organization to sustain them in their work.

The above was put in type, Messrs Couler and McKee have secured the use of the Court room from the Commissioners for Tuesday evening, when Mr. Porter will again be here, and will endeavor to create a general interest in the cause and effect an organization for that purpose.

An Engineering Feat. The feat of replacing an iron bridge with a steel one, in a distance of 29 feet deep with one of the same dimensions of steel was accomplished in Philadelphia, last Saturday, in 2 minutes and 39 seconds. In the space of time nearly 7,000 tons of iron and steel were moved a distance of 29 feet. The work was done by engineering was accomplished at the connecting railroad bridge over the Schuylkill, just above Girard avenue.

FOR SALE. A small farm at Railroad Station, about 40 acres, could be surveyed and sold in lots, No. 100, and other outbuildings. Inquire at this office.

Low Prices in Musical Goods. Some special prices at Grieb & Lamb's illustrative sale now going on.

Books Notices. Beginning with November 1, 1897, Harper's Round Table will be published as an illustrated monthly magazine for youth, and will be sold for 10 cents a copy. $1.00 a year, instead of $2.00 a year, as the case when the paper was issued weekly. It will be greatly enlarged, and in addition to three long serials for the coming year, it will contain many short stories in each number, besides a selection of articles on travel, sport, adventure, etc. There will also be money prizes for competitors in short stories, amateur photography and comic sketches. The cost of the magazine with the CITIZEN at $1.90 cash in advance.

Another Railroad.

Maybe that long-talked-of Beech Creek extension will become a reality in the near future. The following is the long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co. The extension of the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler and from Butler to New Castle, and rights of way are being secured by the Pennsylvania Railroad Co.

The long proposed extension of the Beech Creek extension from the Beech Creek road into Pittsburgh, and on to Pittsburgh by a branch line from Punxsutawney to Butler