THURSDAY, DECEMBER 16, 1897. WASHINGTON.

Pensions and appropriations were th foremost topic in both houses of congress last Tuesday. The pension bill being up in the aouse, Mr. Cannon, Re ibiican, Illiaois, chairman of the Ap ions committee, showed that the estimated revenues for 1899 were $482,000,000, the expenditures, $504,000, 000, showing an estimated deficit of $21, 000,000. Under the last sundry civil act, the Secretary of the Treasury was compelled to estimate this year for $48, 000,000 of river and harbor work, $33, 000,000 of which had not been author ized by law. If this sum were deduc ted there would be an estimated sur plus of $8,000,000, instead of a deficit. Last year the estimated deficit under the last tariff act was $46,000,000. If the $17,000,000 for river and harbor work for which the government stood bound had been included the estimated deficit be that the $140,000,000 estimated for pensions would not be sufficent, but a leficiency appropriation could be easily made, Mr. Cannon urged economy in on Monday, Representative Showalter introduced bills as follows: To grant a pension of $25 per month to Mary Pollock of New Castle, an army nurse; to increase the pension of Joseph H.-E. McCabe of Beaver county; to increase from $30 to $72 per month the pension of John G. W. Book of Slippery Rock, to grant a pension of $12 per month to Sarah A. Baker of New Castle whose six sons were either killed during the civil war or died afterwards of wounds received therein; to grant a pension of $40 per month to Elizabeth E. Freeman of Sharon.

On Monday Rep. Arnold introduced a bill to repeal the original, civil service law of 1884' and all other laws supple-mental or amendatory thereto, is evident-ly very much in earnest in the matter. He said:

went all or amendatory thereto; seventement ly very nuch in earnest in the matter. He said:

"The civil service system is a delusion a farce and a fraud and ought to be repealed. It is also unbusiness-like, unamerican, unjust and unfair. The whole government service was parked with people who never passed any examination, and then the civil service was extended so as to include them. Now they are in office and protected by the law, and they can't be removed, no matter how unfit they may be. In addition, and then the civil service was extended so as to include them. Now they are in office and protected by the law, and they can't be removed, no matter how unfit they may be, In addition, and then the civil service. Take, for example, the case of Revenue Collector Fruit, of our district. He is under $500,000 bonds, and, with a single exception of one office deputy, he can't appoint a single deputy collector, and yet he and his bondsmen must be responsible for the official acts of people in whose selection he has no voice. In fact, the whole thing is full of injustices and inequalities, as can easily be learned by going through the departments and investigating the way in which it works.

On Tuesday Rep. Showalter presented in the house petitions urging the passage of bills to pension Sarah A. Baker and Mary Pollock, and to correct the military record of Jacob Smith.

A Potato Story,

Theodore Deimling of Jefferson twp raises good potatoes. He is proud of them, and when he determined to visit brother in Carlsruhe, Germany about three months ago, he selected nine, nice, large ones; washed them clean, and put them in his satchel. He intended them for corner and centre pieces, when he spread the Star Spand Banner over his brother's tableout he was doomed to a bitter disap-

When his vessel arrived in Bremen his satchel was opened by the German Custom-house officials, and those nine potatoes were held up in holy horror; the officials saw millions of Colorado beetles crawling all over and through them. Theodore was dumfounded by be-ing asked if he didn't know that it was them. Theodore was dumfounded by being asked if he didn't know that it was against the law to bring American potatoes into Germany, and the affair ended by the nine pretty potatoes being confiscated and Theodore fined $25 for breaking a law he never dreamed of.

We think there is a case here for our State Department. If citizens of this country, visiting relatives in Germany are to be pounced upon and fined for trifling infractions of what looks to us like a ridiculous or vicious law, they should be warned of the fact in advance; and again it may be that the customs officials overstepped their duty and took advantage of Theodore's lack of information to rob him. He should have sent for the U. S. Consul at that point, and referred the matter to him.

Mr. Deimling is the third citizen of this county that we know of who visited friends in Germany during the past summer, and who were not satisfied with the condition of affairs there.

He wondered how the poor people lived. A little bundle of kindling sticks cost 25 cents, good steak 40 cents, a little cauliflower 40, and so on.

The Germans of today seem to be a nation of slaves, ruled by a pack of bullies and robbers.

Mr. Deimling also visited a brother in Switzerland, where things were not so bad.

He was born here May 18. 1830 and preciped his education in the pub-lic schools and at the Butler academy and peceived his education in the public schools and at the Butler academy. He taught school for a cougle of years and began the study of medicine with Dr. W. C. Thompson, of Indianapolis, attended lectures in the Medical University of Pennsylvania, and graduated from that institution in 1852. He practiced medicine at Altoona aud Holidaysburg till 1857, when he was examined by the medical board of the regular army, passed and was commissioned assistant surgeon in the United States army in 1858. He served in several campeigns against the Indians and established a hospital at Chesier in '61. He joined Pope's army at second Bull Run and served as assistant medical purveyor of the army. At the battle of Antietam he was made assistant medical purveyor of the army and stationed at Frederick City, Maryland. He later took charge of a hospital at Baltimore and was next sent to organize a hospital at Pittsburg. In '63 he was promoted to the rank of captain and placed in charge of Lincoln United States hospital, Washington D. We heartily indorse the actions of former grand juries as well as the action of this court making it possible, in the near future, to vote for or against in the near future, to vote for or against a county poor farm, being of the opinion that modern civizilation demands that we care for our unfortunate poor humanely and properly, thus abolishing our present method of "farming them out" (so to speak) to the cheapest bidder, the man who has the heart to provide the fewest comforts to cheer their declining years, which we regard as little short of barbarons.
