

Removal Sale!

You know what that means. It is bargains for you! Our increasing business requires more commodious quarters, and on the first of April we will move to the handsome room now occupied by J. R. Grieb, next door to our present location. We do not want to carry over any winter clothing, and have therefore reduced prices on all our

Reliable Clothing.

The quality of the goods and the prices at which they are marked will clean them out quick. Of course that means zero profits to us, but that is no cause for complaint to you. We want the goods to go before moving day comes around. Come in and get your share of the bargains. They will not last long, for anything goes at

Assignee Sale.

Having been appointed assignee for the benefit of creditors of D. A. Heck, Butler Pa., I suppose it would take at least one year to close out this immense stock, but owing to the way the goods are going out it will not take more than three months more to close out the entire stock. We still have a quantity of children's suits, ages from 4 to 10 years—good heavy cassimere, former prices from $4 to $8, which we will sell at what you would have to pay for satinet or shoddy suits, $1.75 to $2.50 per suit—estimates from 50c to $1.00. Children's and boys' overcoats from ages 4 to 20, former price from $4 to $12, now from $1 to $8. Young men's suits for ages 15 to 20 years many from $1 to $10—also shirts, ties, collars, cuffs, gloves, mittens, a full line of underwear from the cheapest to the best makes—men's and boys' sweaters—cotton jackets, men's boys' and children's pants, children's astrakhan coats only $2.50, sell everywhere at $4.00. Beaver and chinchilla refers from $1.50 to $2.00—watches, chains, rings, pins, umbrellas, trunks, valises, hosiery, combs, brushes and a variety of notions for Christmas presents. As I expect to close out this entire stock within the next 90 days I give notice to all persons knowing themselves indebted to said D. A. Heck to call and settle the same at once as after February 1, 1898, the books will be left with my attorney for collection with no interest as the books must be settled as soon as the goods are closed out. If you wish to avail yourself of the many bargains offered, CALL SOON.

Apertures in the CITIZEN.

There is a young girl reading her picture of a world of woe. In a multitude of places, the picture could also be placed. It is a picture of a woman who suffers from disease of weakness of the delicate and important organs concerned in widowhood and motherhood, wedlock means suffering and maternal death. Dr. R. V. Pierce is an eminent and skillful specialist, for thirty years chief consulting physician to the Institute of Health and Surgery, Institute of Buffalo, N. Y. During that time, with the assistance of a staff of able physicians, he has prescribed for thousands of women. The institute of which he is the head is the greatest in the world. He is a regularly graduated physician and has practiced right in one place and another for over twenty years. He is held by his neighbors in shown by the fact that they choose him for their physician and active in the National Congress. The regard treated is shown by the thousands of letters printed in Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser, telling of the benefits derived from his treatment.

Dr. Pierce is the discoverer of a wonderful medicine for women, called Doctor Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It cures all weakness and debility, restores the system, it always inflammation, heals ulcers and sores, pain, it cures the most distressing and interesting period, it banishes the usual discharges and makes baby's advent safe and almost painless. Thousands of women have testified to its marvelous merits. An honest druggist's advice is the best. The profit side of life is health. The balance sheet in the rich red ink of good health. Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription cures consumption and makes the blood pure and true. They never gripe. By druggists.

MOTHER! There is no word so full of meaning and about which such tender and holy recollections cluster as that of "MOTHER"—she who watched over our helpless infancy and guided our first tottering steps. Yet the life of every Expectant Mother is beset with danger and all effort should be made to avoid it.

so assists nature in the change taking place that the Expectant Mother is enabled to look forward without dread, suffering or gloomy forebodings, to the hour when she experiences the joy of Motherhood. It insures safety to the lives of both Mother and Child, and she is found stronger after than before confinement—in short, it "makes Childbirth natural and easy," as so many have said. ### THE CITIZEN.

AN ADDRESS.

To the Republican Voters of Pennsylvania. As business men and as Republicans currently desiring the success of the party assembled from all parts of the State, we deem it proper to make public expression of our views on certain matters of present political interest, and as we believe, of the highest importance to the people of the Commonwealth. In so far as those views concern ourselves as wise and patriotic, we earnestly call upon our fellow-citizens to take prompt and intelligent action as will make them effective.

First.—We call attention to the disgraceful condition of politics in our State, brought about by the prodigal expenditure of money for corrupt and unscrupulous purposes. A baleful influence has been made painfully prominent in recent years in the election and control of delegates to our party conventions, in the nomination and election of members of the General Assembly and their recent election of United States Senators.

The result has been that, instead of the party conventions representing the free will of the party, they have successfully defeated it, and public office has been nominally held by those who have not the confidence of the people. The result has been that, instead of the party conventions representing the free will of the party, they have successfully defeated it, and public office has been nominally held by those who have not the confidence of the people.

support. A notable instance of this character was the coalition made in 1896 which resulted in the defeat of the regular Republican candidate for Sheriff in Philadelphia county, and very recently he sought to make the same coalition in the office of the collector of Taxes in which he failed without any fault of his.
