THIS LETTER EXPLAINS ITSELF.

Pittsburg, Pa., Feb. 24, 1898.

H. CHILDS & CO.

MESSRS A. RUFF & SON.

Butler, Pa.

Dear Sirs: The recent DESTRUCTION BY FIRE of the store of the National Wall Paper Co., whose building adjoins our own, was the closest call we have had in our business experience. A twenty-six inch brick wall alone saved our stock from total destruction, and the flames at no time gained access to our ware-house.

Our loss, while heavy, is caused entirely by water, and we guarantee every pair of goods offered to be absolutely free from all fire damage, and in many instances the water damage is so slight as to be hardly noticeable was to the eve of an expert.

It is perhaps needless to say that we responded to this letter promptly and were FIRST ON THE GROUNDS and had the FIRST CHOICE. These coods will be put on sale at once and will be sold at a slight advance over he ridiculously low prices at which we purchased. Enterprising ones will tet first choice of these rare bargains. Don't wait for your neighbor to tell rou about them. Shoes the price of which was from 35 cents to $5.00 will be old during this sale at from 15 cents to $1.65. Λ word to the wise in sufficient.
