LOCAL AND GENERAL.

Splendid harvest weather.

Our grocery stores will close at 6 p.m. after this week.

Lawn fete on the Ralph lot on Wayne street this evening.

Our hundred and ninety-four days of the year 1898 have gone the way of all days.

The East Clay St. paving is progressing nicely. Mr. Schenck is doing a good job.

Nice rain, the other night, kept the corn from turning into tobacco, with no stamps on.

Now is the time to pull plantains—the old roots are dead and the new ones are just sprouting.

Our grocers are paying 12 cents for butter and eggs, and 75 cents for potatoes.

Last week was a great harvest week. The hay and grain went up in great shape this year.

Picnic at Maple Grove, Monday. All invited. Fare 25 cents. Benefit of Episcopal Sunday School.

Now that the grocers intend quitting at 6 p.m. you must do all your shopping before that hour.

The C. Aligville woolen mills have received a large contract from the Govt. for armaments.

Buffalo Bill had an immense audience in Butler, but people are not very enthusiastic regarding his show.

Butler to have a model Martial Band, or Fife and Drum Corps, under management of Samuel Hughes, a Mr. Brymer.

Several hundred Butlerites went to Cascade Park, New Castle, yesterday, conducted by the P. H. C. will be at Conneaut Lake the 28th.

Dusting your potato vines with powdered sulfur will prevent or stop the spread of the blight that has appeared upon the vines in some localities.

The residences of Adam Biehl and John Hartzell, near Brownsville, were robbed again the other night, and Adam now has a ten-inch gun mounted on his back porch.

Dr. Byron Clark licensed Specialist will wait on his numerous patients or others—at Lowry House, Butler, on Wednesday, July 26th. Come early and avoid the throng.

Our Fire Companies made short work of the fire of Monday evening, but the row of frame buildings back of the Koch & Biehl stores and Reiber rest. made new roofs.

On Tuesday of this week a young couple was refused a marriage license because the young man was not age, his parents are both dead, and he has no guardian.

Does your husband worry about the grocery bills? "asked this-faced lady. "Why, no," said the lady with the silk skirt and patent shoes, "we let the grocer do all that."

When a young lady pins a bouquet on the lapel of a young man's coat, she usually turns her head to one side and tilts up her chin to look at it. The young man who doesn't tumble in slow enough to run over by a hair.

There will be a nocturnal social at the home of John C. Thor, 514 New Castle street, on Friday evening, the 15th inst. for the benefit of the Baptist Church. Refreshments of all kinds will be served and all are invited.

The pretty little chair in the shadow of Cooper & Co., was made by Ward Coover, who is now serving a term in the pen. If you look at the toy closely you will see that it is chiefly composed of tiny paper-tubes of different colors.

A correspondent of a neighboring paper describes a local preacher as "a fluent, lucid and interesting speaker, young in years, unassuming, divine and sanctimonious in expression and excellently qualified for his sacred calling. This is really complimentary although it sounds a little queer."

The firm of Walker & McElvain has been changed Walker & Wick, J. S. Wick taking the place of Chas. McElvain, who went to the army. Parties wishing to purchase real estate, residences, business locations, farms and lottery offices should call upon them. See card.

The forepart of last week C. W. Perine, a farmer of Mercer county, discovered a mad dog chasing his live stock. He shot and killed the animal. On Thursday his son was attacked by a yearling calf, which the dog had bitten. The calf was killed, as was a valuable blooded bull, which also showed signs of hydrophobia.

The old Coliseum building, the old Bradley Woolen mills, and several other buildings at the foot of Federal St., Allegheny were destroyed by fire last Sunday evening. The fire started in the stables of the Delp & Bell furniture establishment. The entire loss is estimated at $150,000. Some P. & W. cars near the bridge were burned, and others were rescued by the trainmen.

The law of this State passed in 1887 protects the soldier and his family from civil process during the term of his enlistment. It provides that no civil process shall issue or be enforced against any person mustered into the military service, during the term for which he shall be engaged in such service, nor until 30 days after he shall have been discharged therefrom.

Quite a number of teams hauling scrapers and other stuff with which to build the new railroad passed through town Monday, on their way to Pittsburgh to Carbon Centre. There is to be quite a cut at that point, and a man named Ryan has a contract for thirteen miles of the new road in that vicinity. Work is in progress, we understand, from Carbon Centre to Punxsutawney.
