to make Secretary Alger and the public believe a lie.

Now let it be understood that an overwhelming majority of the Fifteenth Pennsylvania Volunteers want no additional twenty months of garrison duty and if we are not needed to suppress guerrilla bands of Cubans in actual warfare we consider our government underfoligation to muster us ont of the service. No matter what any salary dazzied officer or designing politician may any, this is the truth. E. H. NEGLEY.

Company E. Fifteenth Pa. Vol. Fort Washington, Md.

This letter caused a sensation in the camp, and Col. Kreps telephoned from Washington to place Negley under arrest, and he was threatened with court martial and imprisonment.

The letter was answered in the same paper next day, by one signed by ergeant named Ludwig, but supposed to have been written by Major Craw ford, in which a feeble denial of Negley's charges was made, and that was followed by one of Private Lewis of the Grove City company in which he himself and a few of the rank and file. The following figures will prove that Sergt. Ludwig's statement is incorrect. His own company and 75 men out of 106 signed a petition asking the Governor of Pennsylvania to use his influence to have them mustered out. The other companies signed as follows: Company K, 90; Company E, 90; Company E, 90; Company F, 90; Company G, 89. Companies A. B and D were intimidated by officers and threatened with a court martial. We cannot see that Negley made any assault on the integrity of our officers. While we have the greatest respect for our officers, we do not wish to be retained for garrison duty and sacrifice our personal interests at house. Angered almost beyond and hisses. Angered almost beyond endurance the colonel summoned the officers of the companies to which the men belonged and gave them a raking for allowing them to make such demonstrations. Then, with the evalence of the companies of the band in the test and status of the ordered assembly and had the call to quarters sounded, but the men paid no attention to it. Exasperated further by this spirit of disobedience, Col. Gross mounted his charger and galloped up to the brad. Waving his sword, he yelled: "Who ordered you men out? Go back to your quarters!"

The men answered with hoots, yells and hisses. Angered almost beyond endurance the colonel summoned the officers of the companies of the colone. And Lewis was promptly arrested by order of Kreps and placed in the guard-

Washington, Md.

Your correspondent was responsible for a communication in the Washington Post of the 24th, inst, which perhaps you are publishing elsewhere in the CTIZEN and which at any rate many of your readers have seen. As the Pittsburg Times correspondent stated, that letter did create a furore in the camp, but only certain officers were mad about it. Nine-tenths of the regiment's rank and file agree with the writer and upheld the letter. Your scribe was severerely reprimanded and later arrested by the colonel's order from Washington.

On the 25th, a contradictory letter appeared in the Post from a C man, which said the 15th was not composed of poltroons who shirked duty when it is a composed of poltroons who shirked duty when it is a common to the later part of last week Gov. Hastings went to Philadelphia to Phi

On Oct. 5 the members of the Hanlin gun club of this place will hold their second annual coon hunt. This promises to be one of the mosten-joyable eveats of the season. The members are already taking a great deal of interest in arranging every thing and there will be nothing left undone to insure those who take part a fine evening's sport. Guns and ammunition will be furnished free on the ground, and all dogs in jured in the hunt will be looked after by the ambulance committee. John Hanlin and wanted to hunt coons will do well to give him in charge of these gentlemen, as they have been known to break dogs of this bad habit in a single night. A MEMBER.

There will be many novelties among the displays in the big Exposition buildings this season. The Laffith-Rand Powder company will have a novel show. It will consist of a working madel of their immense establishment, which turns out the smokele-s powder used by the government. The Westinghouse Electric and Manufacturing company will present new and varied inventions in the shape of electrical display in the big mechanical hall will attract widespread attention. There will be whirring machinery and isides, and the lover of mechanical pursuits will have plenty to interest and instruct him. Another feature of machinery hall will be a large tank filled with water, in which Captain Adams will give exhibitions of deep sea diving, showing the manner of conducting submarine operations, the use of torpedoboats, and how this government mines are operated Another interesting exhibit will be a box making machine to be furnished by W. At the encrance to the main building gallery will be located the cinematograph with views of the late Spanish-American war.

Another attractive feature in the amusement line will be Hagenbeck's animal show, a collection of trained flons, bears and leopards, which aroused so much interest among the visitors to the World's fair in Chicago. Other amusements, located at the lower end of the Exposition grounds, are the gravity railway and the merry go-round, each of which always has its full quota of patrons among the younger set.

Extremely low excursion rates will be arranged on the various railway lines centering in Pittsburg, and no doubt every body in Western Pennsylvania, Eastern Ohio and West Virginia, who can do so, will avail themselves of the opportunity to visit one of the finest industrial expositions in the United States.
