Whether Quay is elected or defeated for United States senator and whether the trial of the charges against him acuits or convicts him the fight again Quay and Quayism will continue until has become "a nightmare of the ast." The anti-Quay Republicans of the the the state are determined to have better blitics and better government than at permitted under the Quay regime. at permitted under the Quay regime The anti-Quay people are resolved t eep on fighting and some lively time tay be experienced in the State thi ear should Quay be re-elected. If h defeated it is thought that he will olved to ass into oblivion as he will have either the energy nor ambition to re-ow hostilities. The Philadelphia Press says editorially concerning Quay. "Mr. Quay has no claim upon the arty for services rendered. He has the philadelphia to re-marty for services rendered. He has the philadelphia to re-the philadelphia to re-marty for services rendered. He has the philadelphia to re-the philadelphia to re-pler. The funeral services were held from the German Catholic church, Tuesday morning. "Mr. Quay has no claim upon the party for services rendered. He has been re-paid a thousand-fold for every-thing he has brought defeat and disas-ter and discredit upon the party. To him and his friends the party owes the defeat of two Republican candidates for governor. To him the present gov-for governor. To him the present govfor governor. To him the present gov-ernor-elect owes the fact that his plu-rality was culy 117,000 instead of 200. and candidates for Congressional, legis-lative and county offices owe their de-feat at the last election. Senator Quay has never byen loyal to the Republican party when it suited his interests to be otherwise. He has time and again dates obnoxions to him. The party caucus has no binding claim apon him He kept his friends out of that cau-us a couple of years ago and joined Ha kepi his friends out of that cau-cus a couple of years ago and joined with the Democrats to prevent a fair reapportionment of the State which had been decreed by a majority of the Re-publican legislators. Lost Peusion Through Pills. William Rowlins, of Port Crane, N.

William Rowlins, of Port Crane, N. Y. a veteran of the civil war, was drawing a pension of $20 a month for liver troubles contracted in the service. Three months ago he was asked to write a testimonial for the manufacturers of a liver pill that he said had helped him. He complied and gave the pills a glow ing sendoff, saying they had made him a well man.
