THE CITIZEN.

Constables' Fee Bill. The following is the text of the new constables' fee bill, which was signed by Governor Stone on 15th of Feb.

An act to regulate and establish the fees to be charged and received by constables in this Commonwealth.

Section 1. Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives of the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania in General Assembly met and it is hereby enacted by the authority of the same that, from and after the passage of this act, the fees to be charged and received by constables in this Commonwealth shall be as follows:

For executing a warrant on behalf of the Commonwealth for each defendant one dollar.

For conveying defendants, except vagrants in jail on mittimus or warrant, for first defendant one dollar, and for each additional defendant fifty cents, and in addition thereto the actual cost of transportation of such defendants.

For arresting persons guilty of a breach of the peace, riotous or disorderly conduct, drunkenness, or who may be engaged in the commission of any unlawful act tending to impair the personal security or endanger the property of the citizens or violating any ordinance of any borough for the violation of which a fine or penalty is imposed, or offending or suspected of offending against the laws of this Commonwealth protecting timber lands or the violation of any other law of this Commonwealth authorizing arrest by constable without process and bringing such offender before a justice of the peace, for each defendant seventy-five cents, and for every act in or about the arrest or removal of vagrants seventy-five cents for each vagrant so arrested or arrested and committed and mileage as hereinafter provided.

For levying a fine or forfeiture on a warrant fifty cents.

For taking the body of a defendant in custody on a mittimus where bail is afterwards given and before delivery of body to the jailor one dollar.

For executing a search warrant and making return thereon one dollar.

For making returns to the Court of Quarter Sessions one dollar and fifty cents.

For serving summons notices on referees or tenant, either personally or by leaving a copy, fifty cents for each person served.

For serving subpoenas, fifty cents for the first witness and fifteen cents for each additional witness served.

For executing attachment, fifty cents for each defendant and garnishee served.

For arresting on a capias, one dollar for each person arrested.

For taking bail on a capias or for delivery of goods, fifty cents.

For selling goods levied or distrained, for each dollar not exceeding one hundred dollars, cents, and for each dollar in excess of one hundred dollars, two cents.

For receiving and paying over money paid after a levy without sale on each dollar actually received and paid over by the constable to the creditor, two cents.

His Superb Climax.

One of the ablest of the Irish members in the house of commons was once delivering a speech against the rapacity of the Irish landlord.

"I believe, Mr. Speaker, if one of those fellows owned land in the heart of Africa, he wouldn't be there a week before he would have his hands in the pockets of the naked savages."—Spare Moments.

A Chance He'd Overlooked. Griggs—Have you heard the news? Poor old Blinks has shot his arm off out landing.

Briggs—Oh, Lord! What a fool I am! I might have known that!

"Why, heavens and earth, man! what's the matter now?" "Matter? Bah! Haven't I gone and put a dozen bottles of champagne that Blinks wouldn't buy anything!"—Brooklyn Life.

Boys, Take Warning! A green apple is a perilous little way. A green little apple devoured one day. And the green little devoured now tenderly.

Over the little green apple boy's green little—Cornell Widow.

WOLF AND LAMB. "That's right, it's just like you, lagging behind. Why don't you hurry up? We shall be sure to miss the train!"—St. Paul's.

Old Age Deferred. Now it should take a long time for a cook to get antique.

"Well, Henrietta," he answered, as he gloomily tapped the edge of the table, "I dunno's I blame him for wanting to get away from home and come to Washington Star."

At the Club. "I hear you've got a divorce from your wife."

"What's correct," "What was the trouble?" "No trouble at all, only I wanted to be envied by the other married men, and make you all feel bad."—Tammany Times.

UNSOPHISTICATED. "Come on, eh? Come on home and play wit' your little brother."—Chicago Times-Herald.

Society Practical. "The true rose fades from the scene as the woman who does her own cooking is but still to find a place among the angels than the woman who doesn't."—Washington Star.

A Charitable Girl. "Miss Cutting," began young Softleigh, "I got some time I—aw have been severely thinking, doncher know, and as a result, I—aw have half a mind—"

"Well," interrupted Miss Cutting, "that is more than any of your acquaintances credit you with, but I'll be real charitable and concede you that much; so pray say no more about it."—Chicago Daily News.

Levity. Here the lecturer grew earnest. "I am convinced," he exclaimed, "that the woman who does her own cooking is more likely to find a place among the angels than the woman who doesn't."—Boston Journal.

AN ECCENTRIC SHELL.

The Strange Actions of a Sixty-Pound Projectile That Struck the Baltimore.

Aside from the bad marksmanship of the Spanish gunners, there seemed to be an extraordinary lack of killing quality in the shells which hit our vessels.

They were known as the "Baltimore," a 60-pound armor-piercing shell, fired undoubtedly from the Cananea battery on shore, entered the Baltimore about two feet above the upper deck on the starboard side, between the after six-inch gun and the three-pounder mounted on the rail.

This shell, after piercing two thick plates of steel one-quarter of an inch thick, struck the deck and penetrated till it reached one of the heavy deck beams, which it crushed clear through.

It was then deflected upward, coming out of the wooden deck, and tearing its way through the steel combing of the engine room skylight, after passing through a half-inch plate of steel, had been turned sideways on rising from the deck, the holes it made through these plates were about 18 inches long by six inches wide, ragged, torn spots, very unlike the clean-cut punctures made by such a shell when entering point forward.

Leaving the skylight, the shell, rising slightly forward, struck the roof of the engine room, and was finally stopped. In other words, this shell passed through one inch of steel, ripped up a deck, broke a deckbeam and bulged a shield about an inch out of its original position.

It crossed the Baltimore from starboard side to port and back again to the starboard side, and yet had hit none of the many crew members who were in the engine room at the time.

It is true it was the cause of wounding two officers and six men, for in its course it exploded two three-pounder shells, which were also fired from the Baltimore's rail, but directly it injured no one, and it is regarded as holding the record for eccentricity.

It is acknowledged and recognized and reminded me that I had forgotten the box it came in—Philadelphia North American.

Practical. Hetty—What did he do when you sent me the ring to him? Dolly—Acknowledged receipt and returned me that I had forgotten the box it came in—Philadelphia North American.

Indicated. She—Harold is simply marrying you for the money, so that he can pay his bills. Hetty—Nonsense! Harold never thinks of paying his bills.—N. Y. World.
